The aphorism of the day to meditate and ponder upon.

Four significant full moon festivals

The Astrological Diary gives the 27 lunar constellations, called "Nakshatras" with Sanskrit names. Four full moon festivals, celebrated since ancient times and of particular importance for meditative work, are based on the position of the moon in the nakshatras and not on the signs in which the sun is located:

- The festival of the Vaisakha full moon (moon in Visâkha or Anûrâdha, sun in Taurus or Gemini).
- The festival of the Sravana full moon (moon in Sravana or Dhanishta, sun in Leo or Virgo).
- The festival of the Karthika full moon (moon in Krittika or Rohini, sun in Scorpio or Sagittarius); Rohini is Aldebaran.
- The festival of the Magha full moon (moon in Magha or Pûrvaphalguni, sun in Aquarius or Pisces).

These lunar constellations form pairs and they are associated with the Fixed Cross. When a full moon occurs in these four constellations, energies from Lord Sanat Kumara are distributed during the full moon hours to help establish us firmly on the path .

The Pledge

By the New Group of World Servers

We, the humanity,
perceive the simultaneous double movement in Synthesis.

We, the humanity,
accept dissolution of the undesirable and thereby its elimination.

We, the humanity,
invoke simultaneously percolation of the Energy of Synthesis into the governments of the world.

We, the humanity,
invoke from the subtle to the gross immaculate concept of governing the world and expel from the gross to subtle the divisive forces.

We, the humanity,
join with heart and soul the Hierarchy
in building the New World Order.

Let the three devas of Light, Love and Power restore the plan on Earth.

Om Shanti – Shanti – Shantihi

It is recommended to utter this pledge at new moon individually or in groups. Each approach to the new moon means dissolving the present and developing something new. We are in a very critical time. If interested, we can make this contribution of good will.
