

Master C.V.V.

The Aquarian Master, who showed the path of Immortality

Foreword

Foundations for good character and spirituality are laid in childhood through stories. In India, the Amar Chitra Katha series, Chandamama and other such picture books have long been depicting stories from Ramayana, Mahabharata, Puranas, and other epics very effectively for children.

The inspiration and impressions gleaned from such picture books during childhood remain with us, either consciously or unconsciously, throughout our lives.

Here is a humble attempt to bring out similar picture e-books to introduce children to Master C.V.V., Master M.N. and Master E.K. Instead of narrating just the events of life, the focus is on highlighting how the Masters demonstrated a life of synthesis and highlighting some of their teachings.

This biography has been creatively adapted to make it easier for children to understand. We believe these picture e-books will be of immense benefit to the children.

We extend our gratitude to all the volunteers for their contributions to scriptwriting, translation, proofreading this book, and providing financial support.

This book is primarily based on the writings and discourses of Dr. K. Parvathi Kumar.

Other books referred are

1. Master C.V.V. by Master E.K.
2. Prakpaschimamulu by Master E.K.
3. Premalekhalu by Master E.K.
4. Master EK Jeevitha Charitra by Sri Ch. Satyadev
5. Anantaputruni Ananta Vaibhavam by Sri U.V.A.N.Raju

Illustrations

Artist Srinivas Kattiboyina.

Price

Invaluable.

Publisher

The World Teacher Trust – Global, Switzerland.

Copyright

© 2025, The World Teacher Trust – Global, Switzerland.

This electronic book is available for free download at <https://worldteachertrust.org/en/web/publications/>

Whenever darkness threatens to overpower the lamp of wisdom, divinity comes down and manifests as a Master. Such Masters visit our planet every now and serve humanity as a harmonious instrument of divinity. Here is the story of a Master, Master C.V.V., who led such a full life where every aspect of it was a significant demonstration of divine wisdom.

Master C.V.V. was born on 4th August 1868 at Kumbakonam, in the famous temple town of Tamil Nadu State, South India. His parents were Sri Kuppuswamy Iyengar and Smt. Kamamma. On the eleventh day of his birth the child was named as Venkata Rao Venka Swamy Rao.

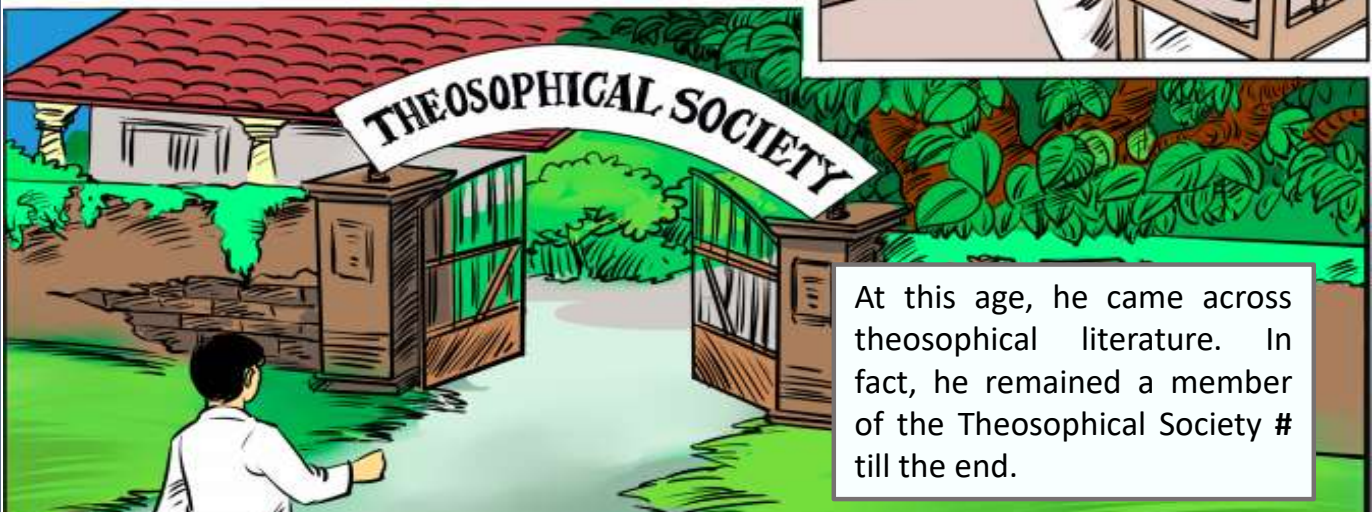

Like Gautama the Buddha, he was initiated through the sacred ritual of upanayana at the age of five though it is normally performed at the age of seven.

After the initiation, he was given in adoption to his paternal aunt Kanchupati Subbamma. The elementary education of the boy took place in Kumbakonam and the higher education in the town of Srirangam.

By the 18th year, he was proficient in the Vedas – both in chanting as well as applying them in daily life. He was fluent in Sanskrit, Telugu, Tamil, and English languages.

At this age, he came across theosophical literature. In fact, he remained a member of the Theosophical Society # till the end.

* Theosophical Society, head quartered in Madras, India is an organization that emphasized universal brotherhood and understanding of Wisdom from across globe.

He was married to Smt. Rukmini when he was twelve years old and through her, he had three sons and three daughters. She passed away when he was thirty-six years old.

In his thirty-eighth year, he married Smt. Venkamma and through her, he had three sons and one daughter. Venkamma's entry into his life was another significant milestone in occultism. She served him as the medium for eliciting cosmic information, which he used for conducting his scientific and spiritual experiments.

Some aspirants say that the etheric body of H.P. Blavatsky cooperated with Smt. Venkamma in this task and some, therefore, infer that she was verily H.P. Blavatsky reborn.

At the financial front, he tried his hand in many a business venture. He bequeathed much property in his town. He sold them one by one, to feed the people who loved to gather in his house every day. In his house, starting with breakfast, there was sumptuous lunch with 12 to 16 items and dinner for many – a daily festivity indeed.

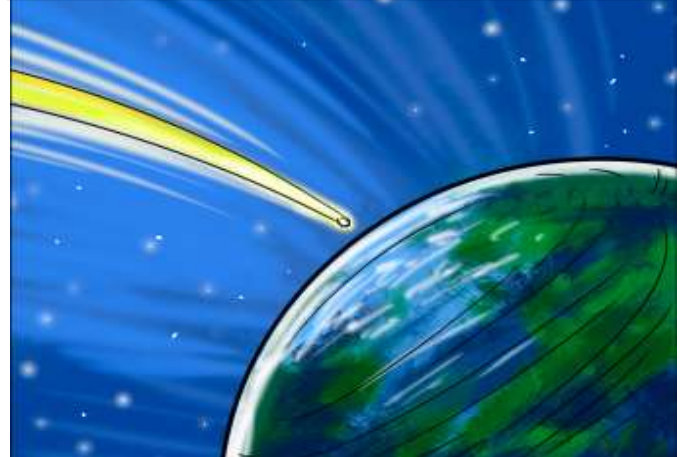

He was a musician of a high order. When he sang on the banks of river Kaveri, many beings flocked around him, totally absorbed in music.

Master was a very popular person in the town. He served as the mayor of the town. Many elite were attracted to him, though they did not know why.

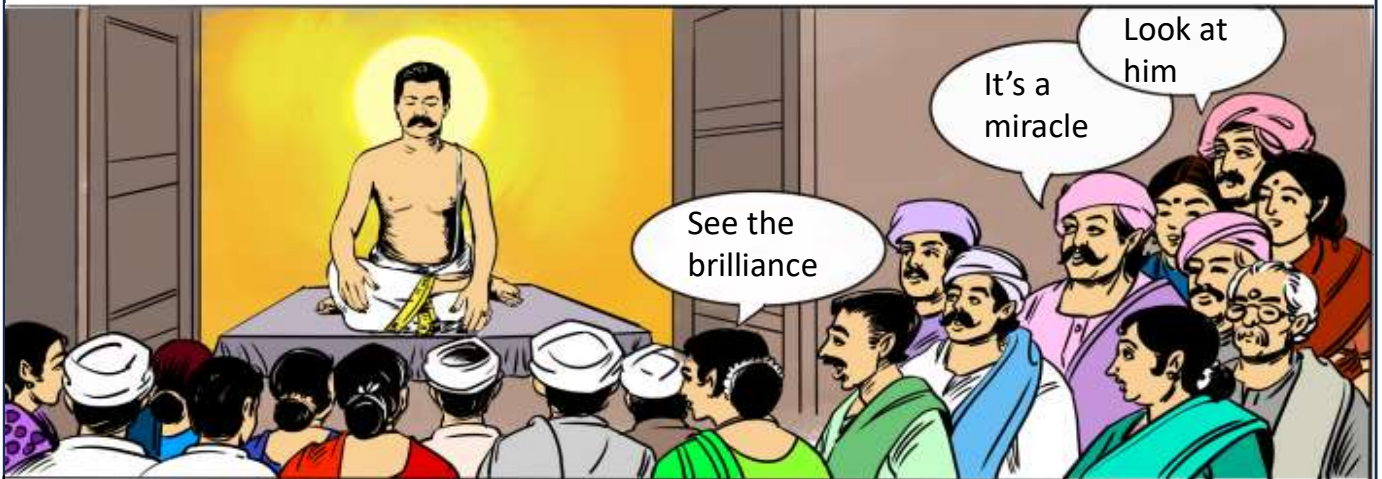

A miraculous event happened in his 42nd year. It was in 1910 on 31st March at midnight. At that time, Halley's comet touched our solar system.

The tail of the comet touched our planet. The energies streaked into the house of the Master at midnight as a colossal lightning with the clap of thunder. The neighborhood shook. The hearts trembled. People ran up to his house, fearing the worst.

When they opened the door, they saw him sitting in veerasana posture, absorbed in meditation and surrounded by a brilliant light. They did not dare to disturb him and inquire.

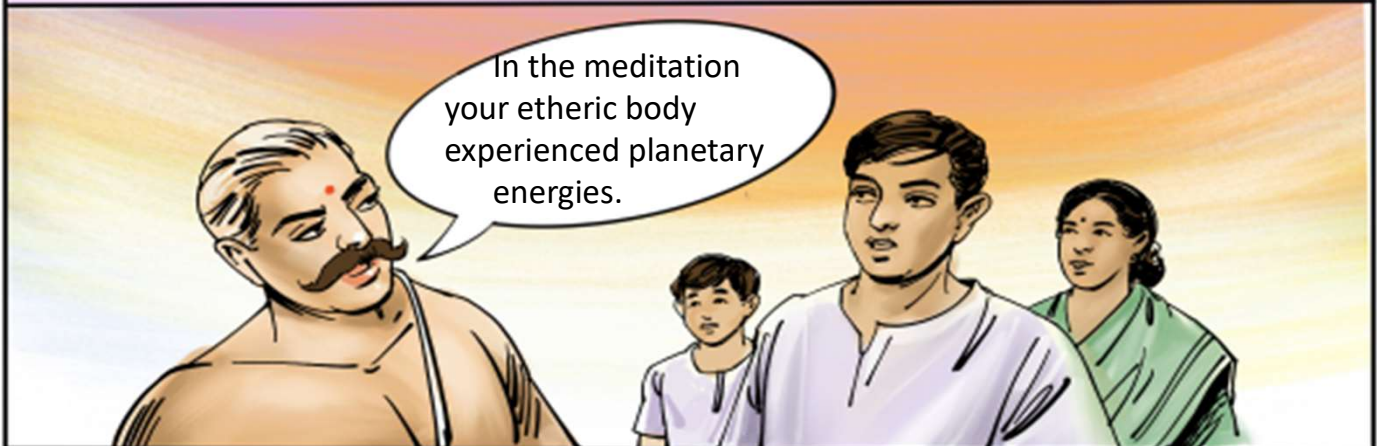

They returned to their homes and the next morning; they drew courage and approached him once again. They asked him what happened the last night.

Master was doing experiments sitting in deep samadhi state for hours together. He was accompanied by wife Smt. Venkamma, his son Chandu and his disciple Sundaram.

He worked with etheric vehicle # of his wife, son and his disciple to collect information from higher planes * He conducted many experiments and found ways and means to mold the human structure to enable the latter attain immortality.

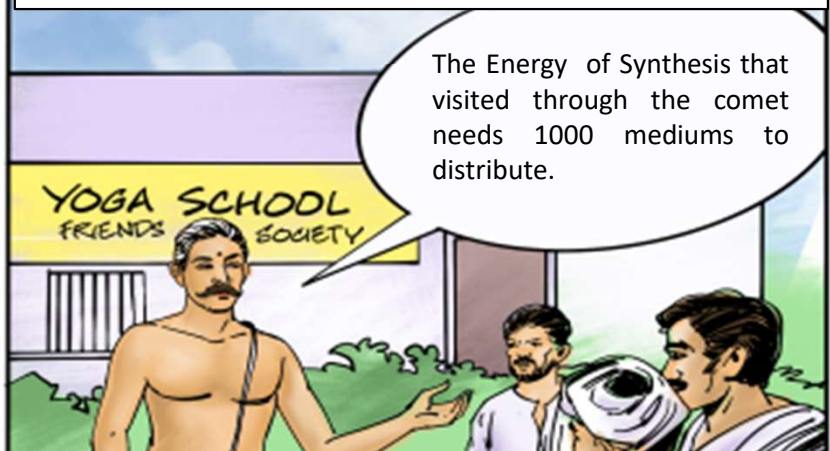

He even conducted communications with planetary intelligences, made certain arrangements with them.

He experimented with cosmic sounds and formulated certain sound formulae to effectively rectify the human psyche.

As promised, he came out of his experiments and called out to people.

The human body is a composite of two parts, the physical body and the body of light, which is called etheric body.

* There are seven planes of existence.

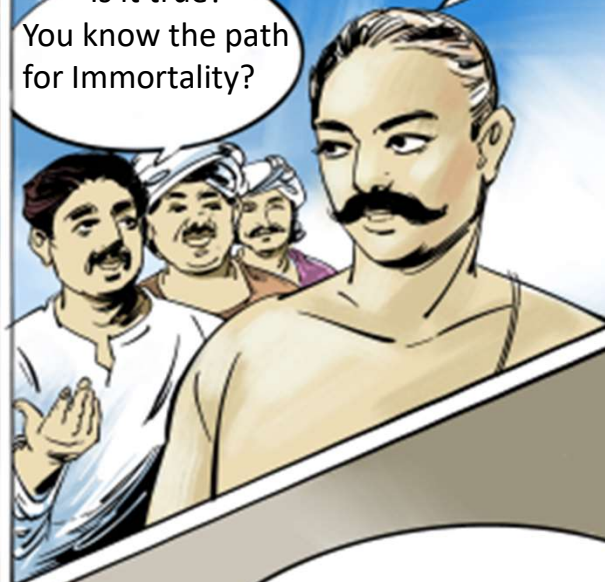

He soon gave an advertisement in 'The Hindu', a leading English newspaper, daily, inviting those who did not want to die to approach him. No wonder, some considered him mad and some mysterious, while the sensible were redeemed. Many inquisitive people & truth seekers responded to the call and gathered around Master to understand his New Yoga.

Many inquisitive people & truth seekers responded to the call and gathered around Master to understand his New Yoga.

Yes, I do. That is my assurance. If you follow my yoga, you are going to live, not leave or die.

Is it true?
You know the path
for Immortality?

Bhrikta Rahita Taraka RajaYoga !

The yoga that neutralizes the past karma and enables the truth seeker to realize the Synthesis.

How is it even possible for you to neutralize my past karma? Isn't our karma governed by planets, like Saturn and others.

Amazing, what is your yoga?

It is a misconception that planets bind. The role of a planet is like that of a servant in the house.

The child in the house depends on servant heavily. Its movements are restricted by him.

The child grows into a young adult and his movements are not restricted by the servant anymore.

The young man grows old and ultimately becomes the master of the house. The servant depends on the master totally.

Likewise, the planets direct the movements of a person who does not have a hold over himself. They co-operate with a disciple who is in the spiritual path. They await the instructions of a Master. In all these three stages, they serve the house.

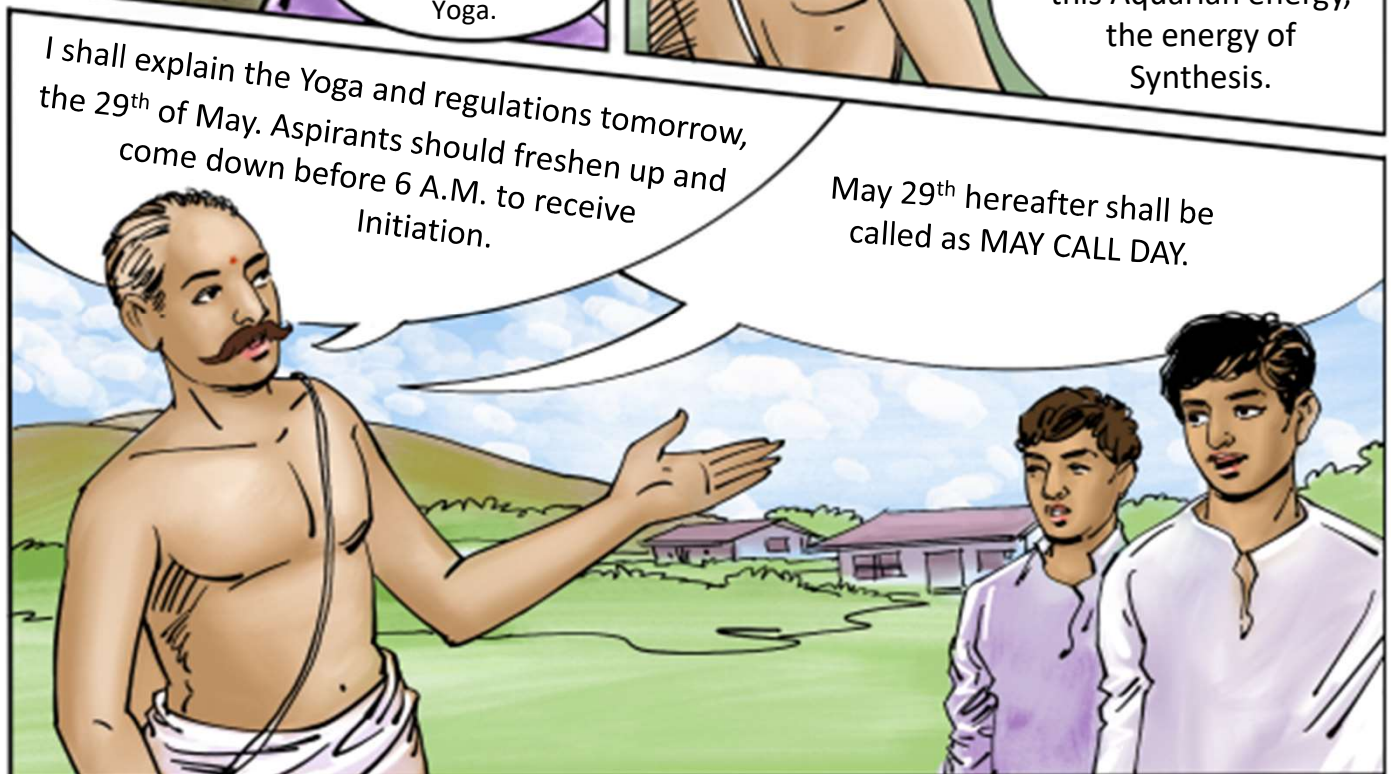

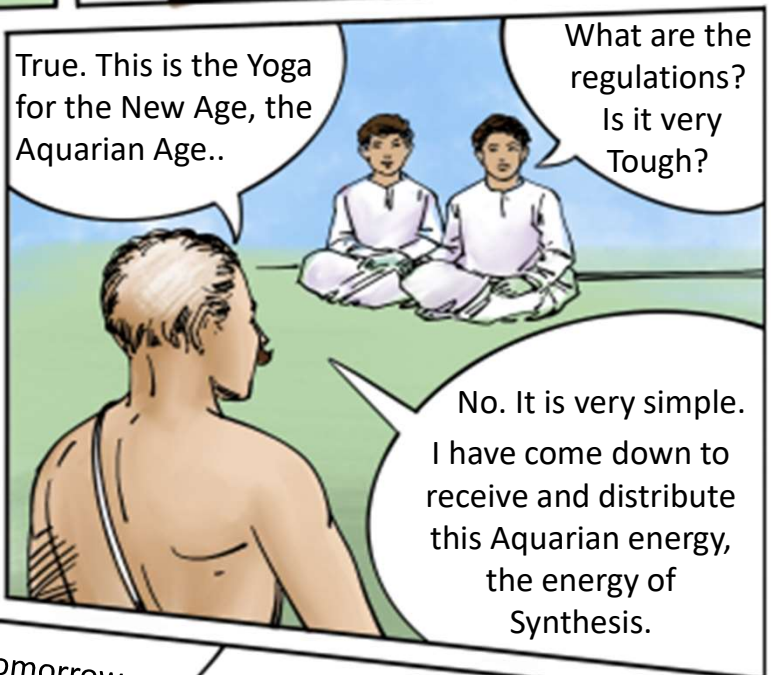

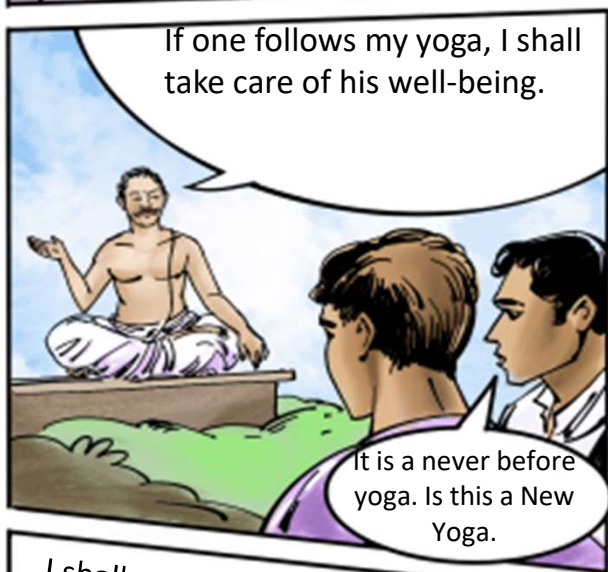

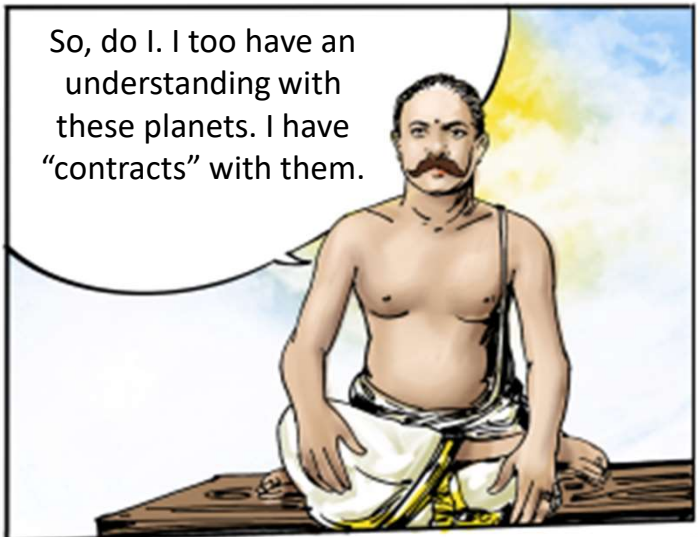

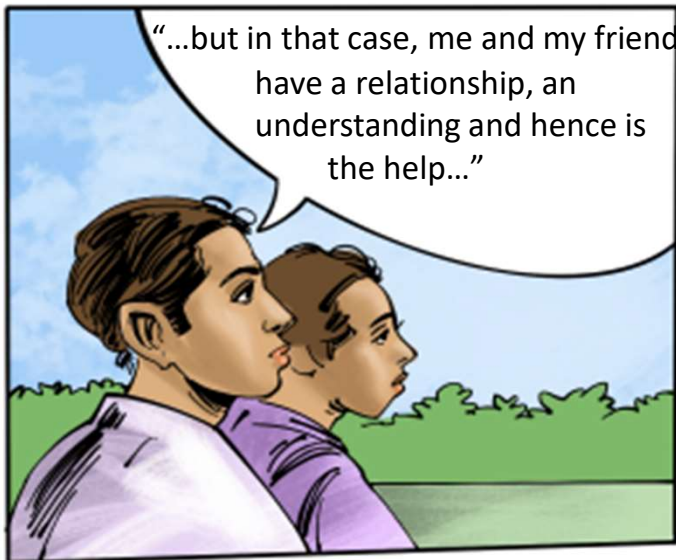

It sounds interesting, but what about my past karma? # The one who is indebted must repay, isn't it? How can an external person neutralize another person's karma?

Why not? When your close friend is in debt, don't you assist him clearing his dues? This is similar.

Karma is a sequential action. Every action will have its consequence, and it is believed that the birth of every human is governed by his actions in past life.

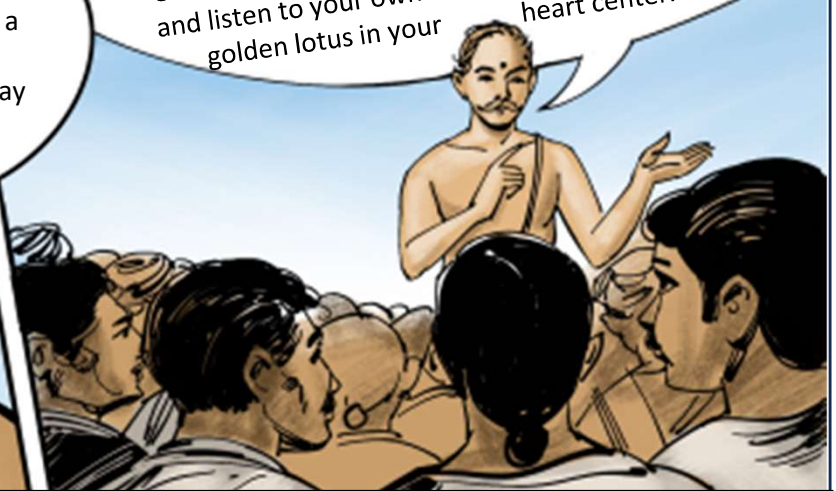

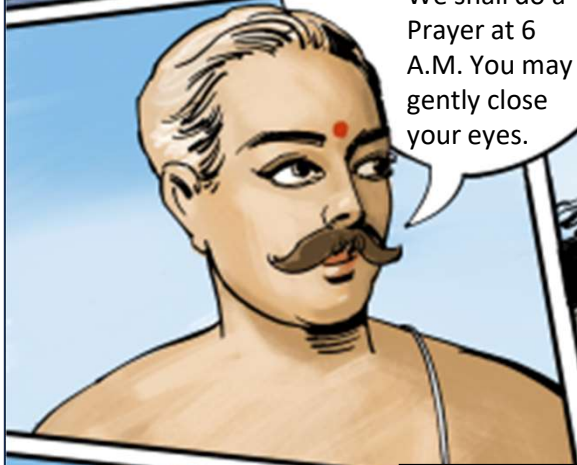

The next day, around 100 people gathered at Master's house at 5:00 A.M and Master had prepared the breakfast of Idly and Sambar for all. It was 180 degrees shift from the orthodox norms prevailing those days. People used to observe fasting on auspicious days, but this Master started the day breaking that norm. Soon after the breakfast, all gathered in the hall at 5:50 A.M. Master advised them to be seated in a comfortable posture, facing north or east.

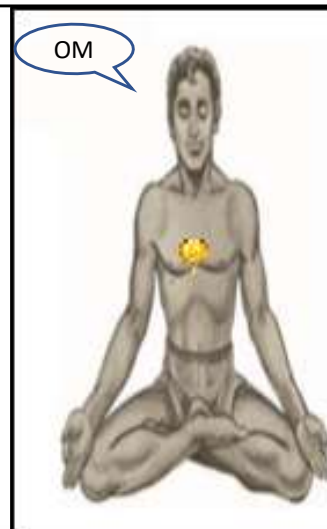

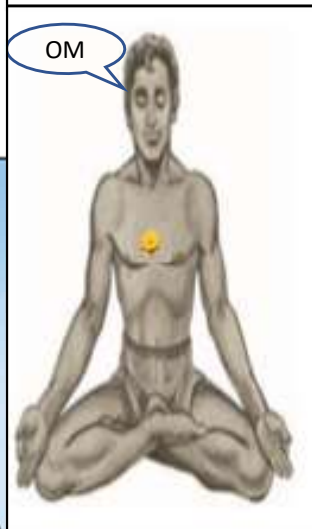

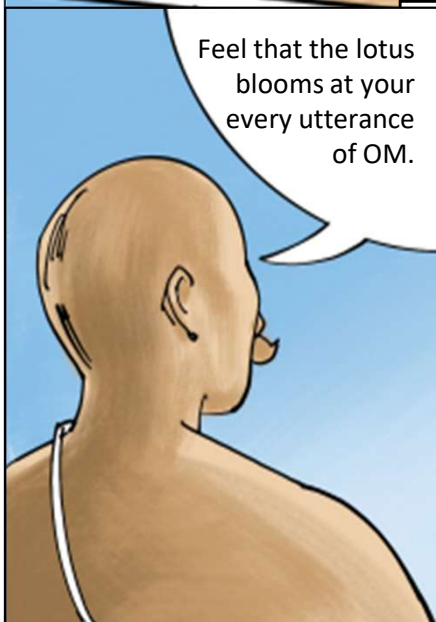

We shall do a Prayer at 6 A.M. You may gently close your eyes.

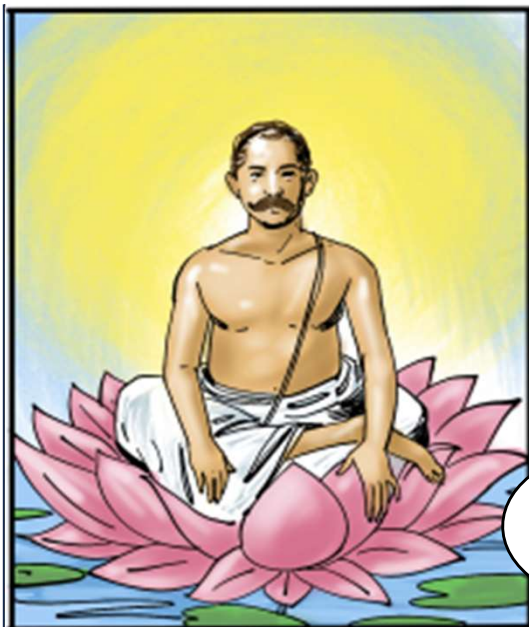

Utter OM thrice in a deep, slow, soft and uniform manner and listen to your own utterance. Imagine a brilliant golden lotus in your heart center.

Feel that the lotus blooms at your every utterance of OM.

Thus, after the three utterances, you would see a fully unfolded heart lotus.

Visualize the Master as being seated at the center of the lotus. Visualize further that the Master is looking into your eyes, with a smile and with a blessing gesture. Visualizing the Master, utter forth 'Namaskaram Master C.V.V.' and remain silent for 15 minutes.

Namaskaram
Master C.V.V.

Namaskaram
Master C.V.V.

He gave the prayer at 6 and all followed him. No one knew how long they sat like that in the prayer. Slowly and gradually people started opening their eyes and what they experienced was inexplicable.

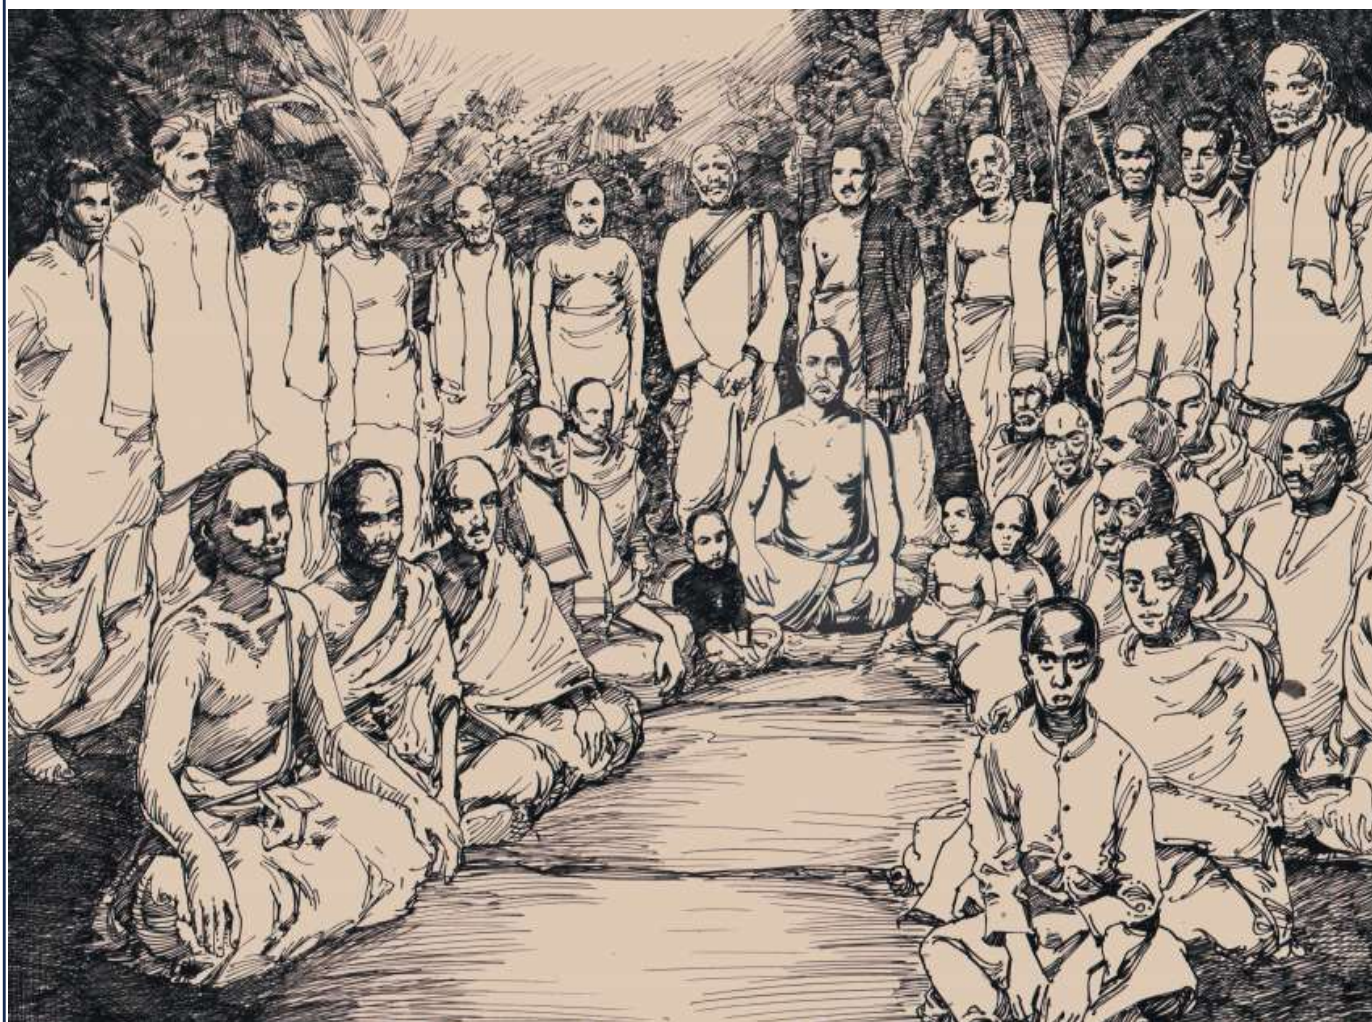

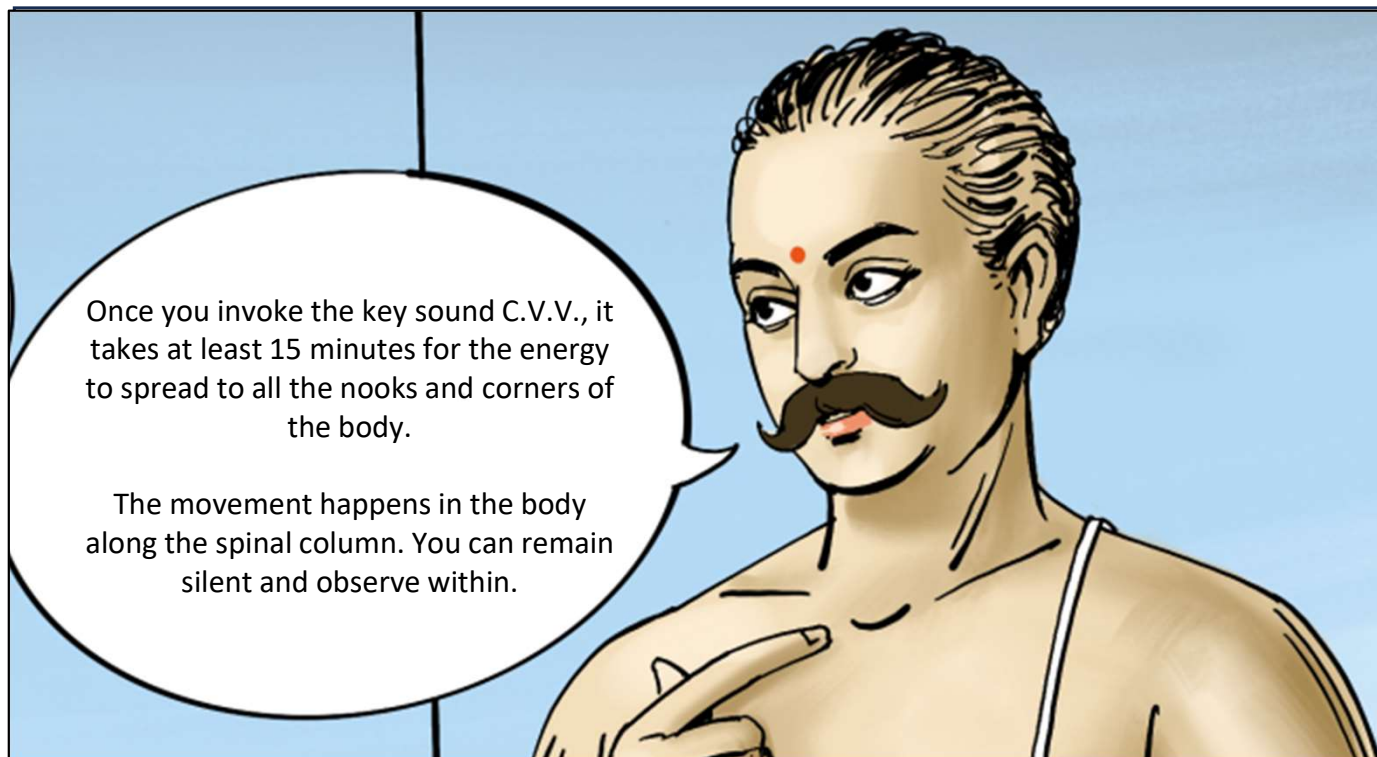

"This is the prayer,
the invocation of energy.
It must be done twice a day with a gap of 12 hours.

The invocation would activate the energy that lasts for 12 hours.

Choose a convenient point of time and stick to it, morning and evening, for the smooth flow of the rhythm into the routine."

Master C.V.V. along with direct mediums during December Call on December 29th .

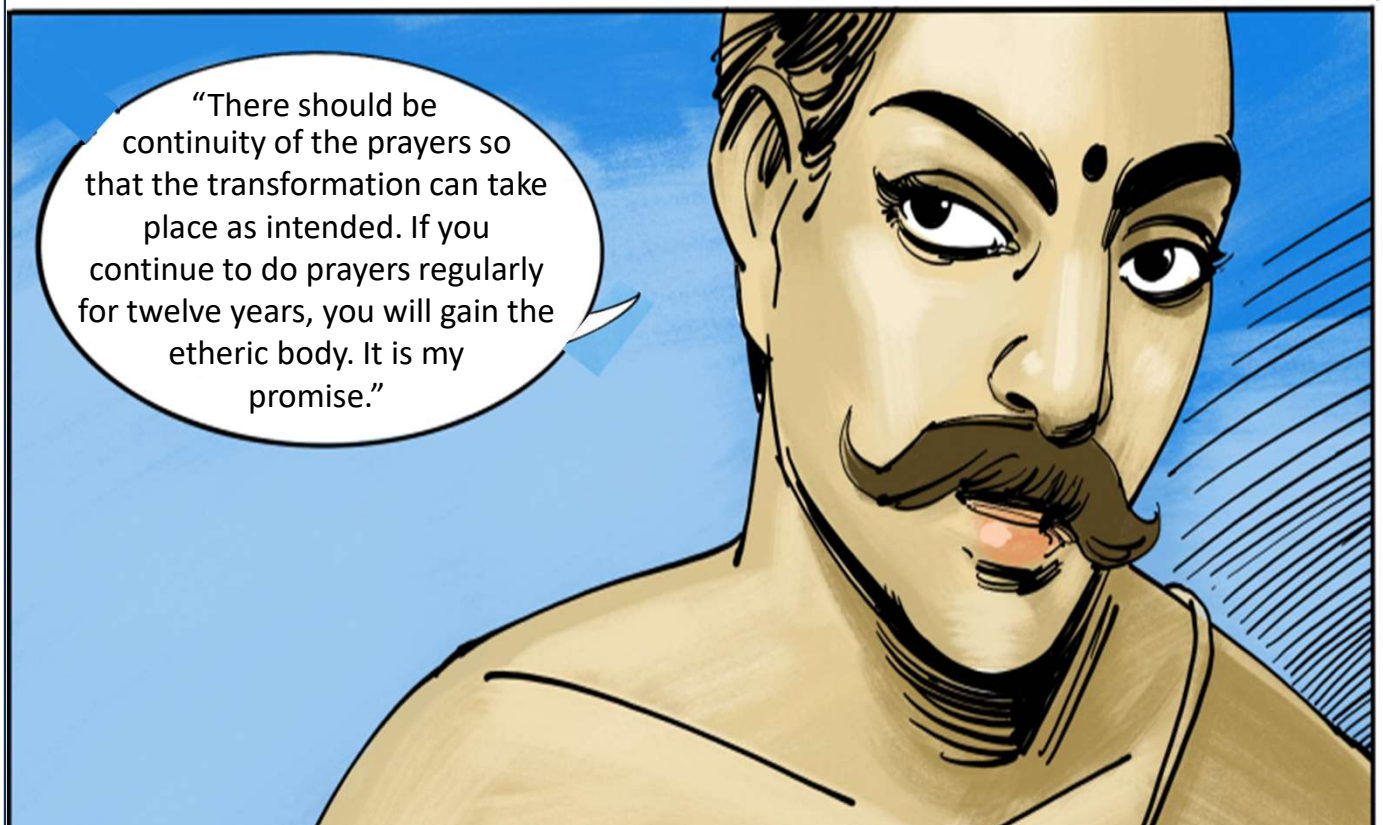

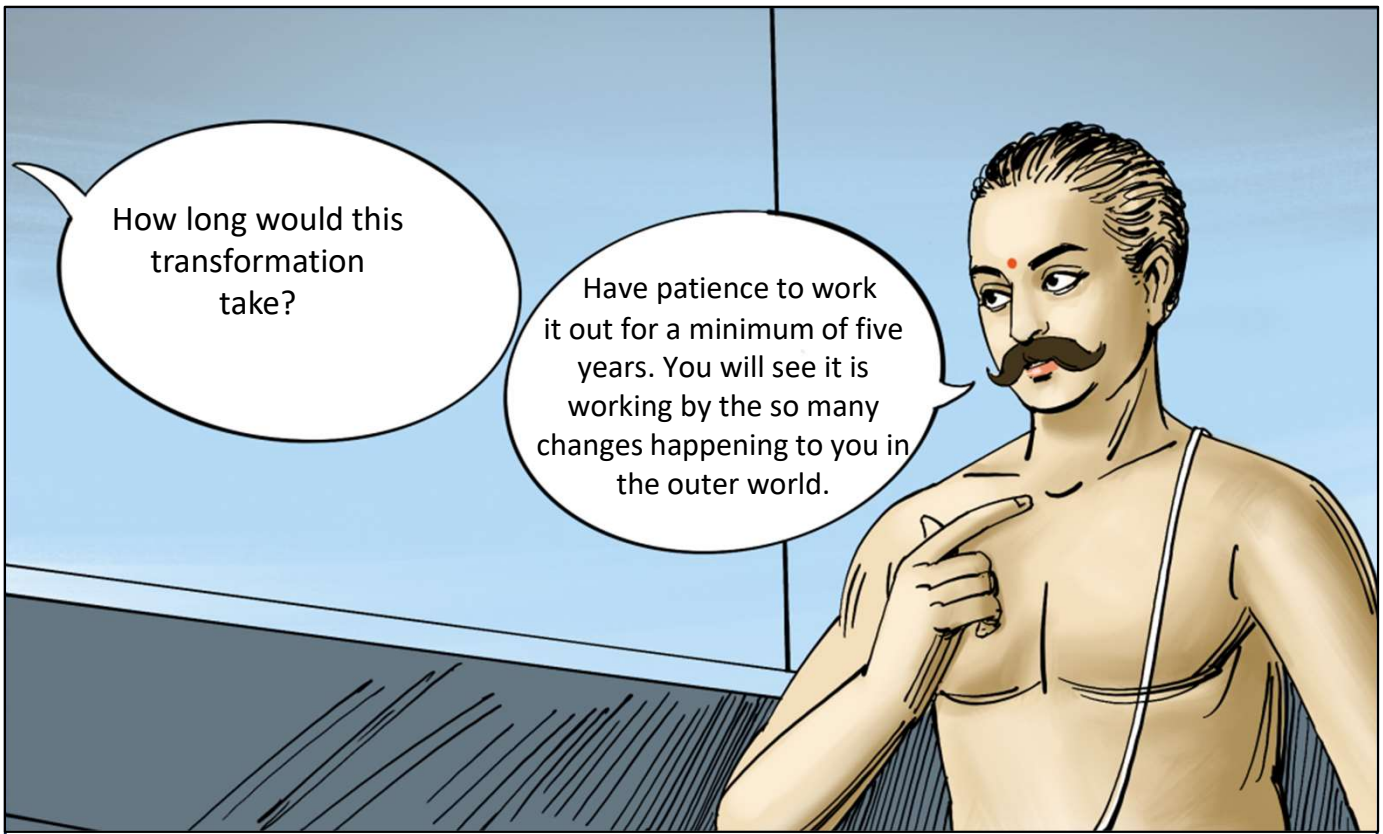

Soon after the first prayer, he opened the question & answers session, as he knew there were many questions on everyone's mind.

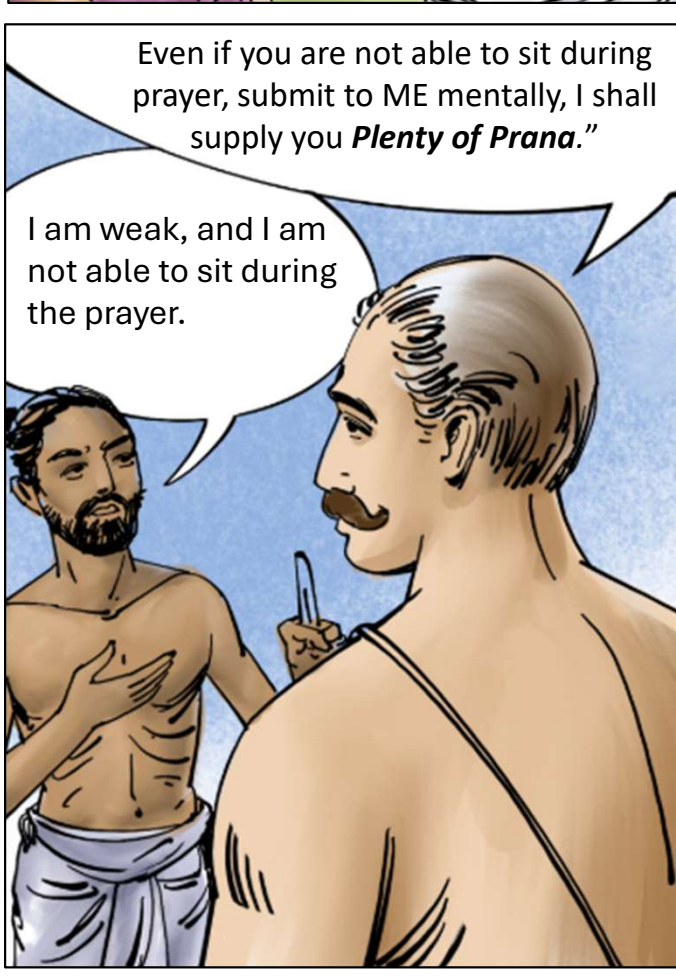

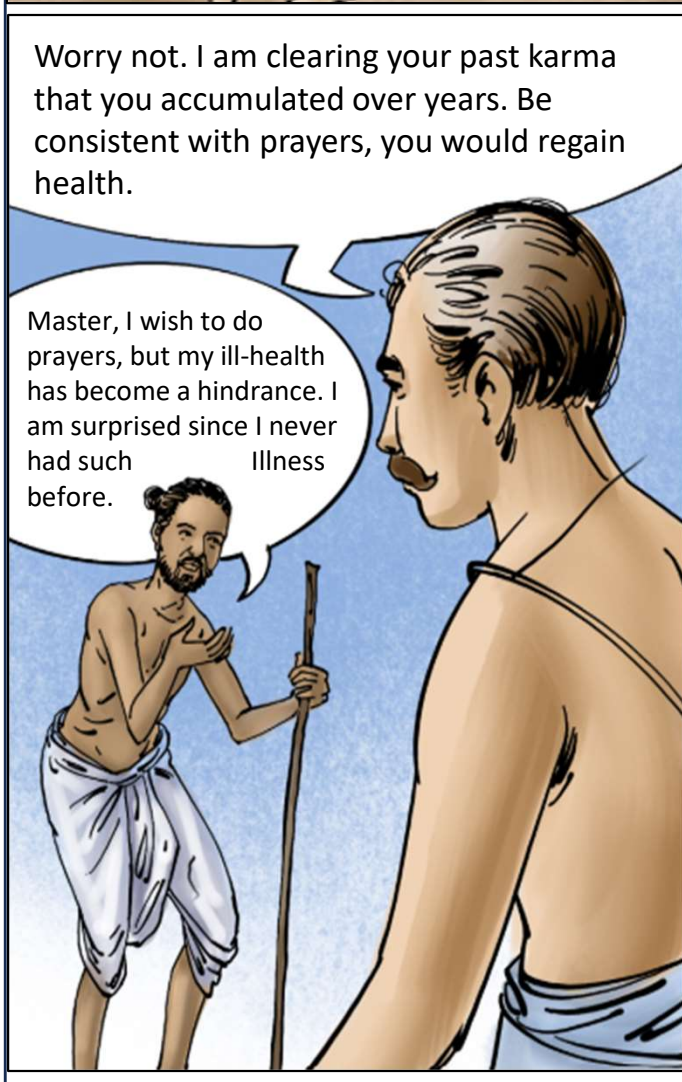

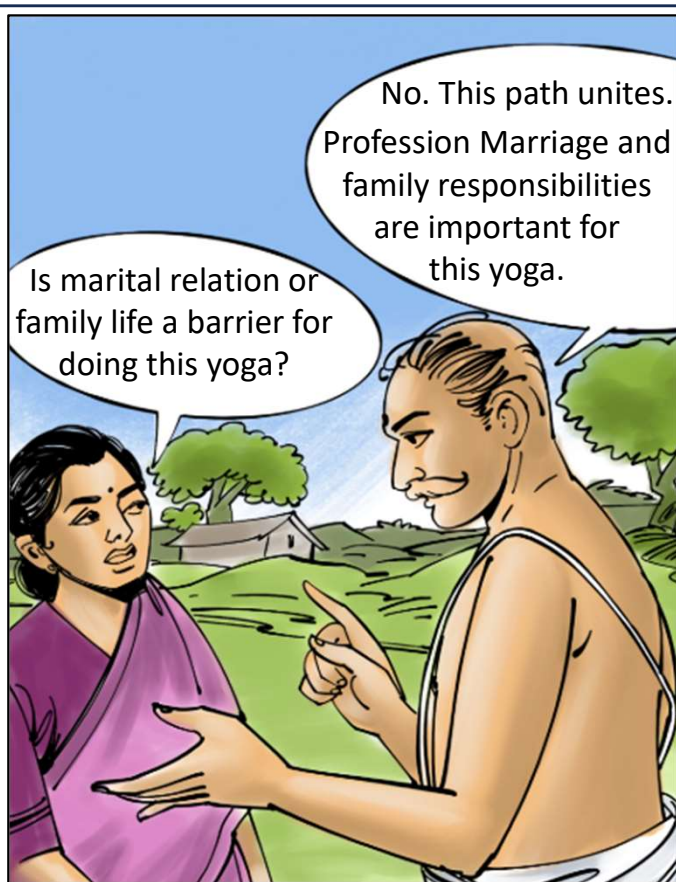

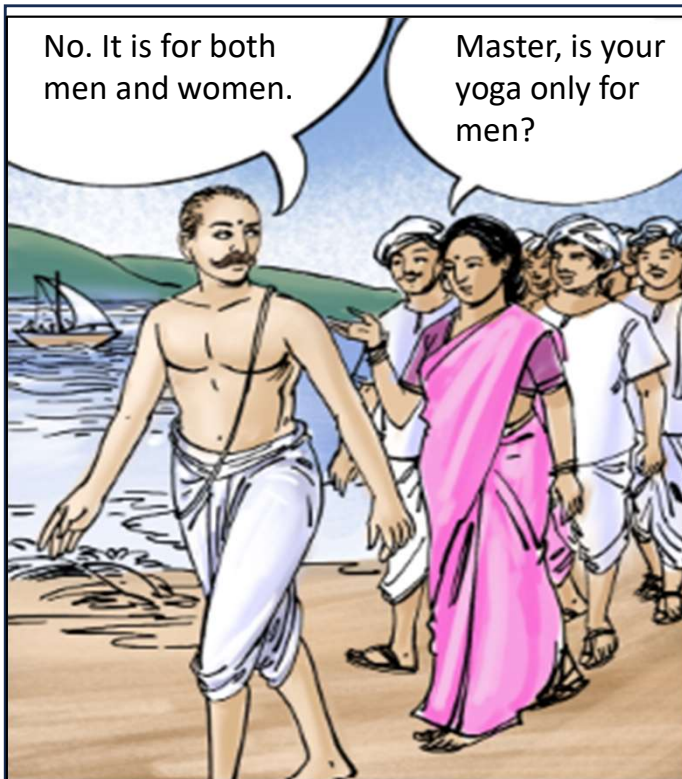

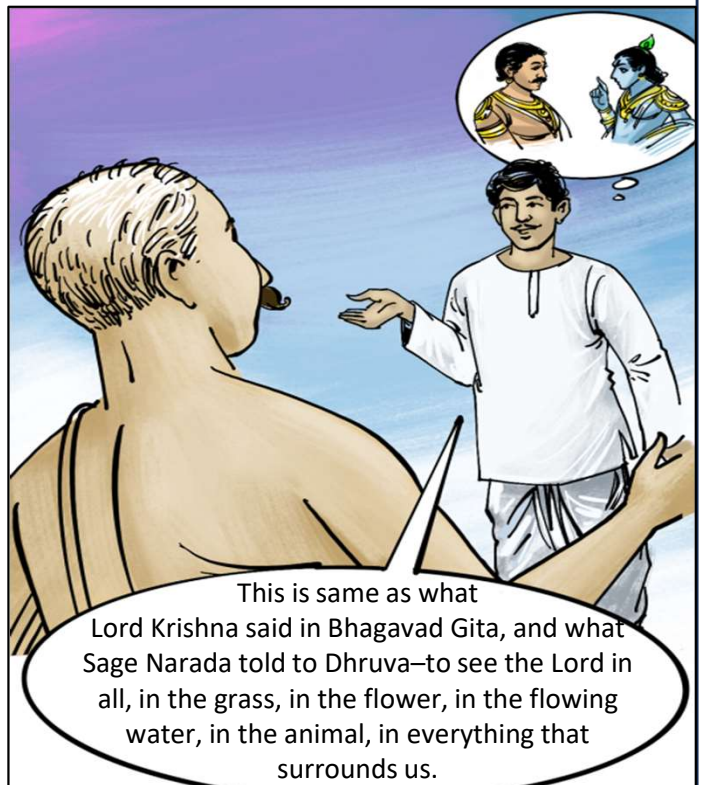

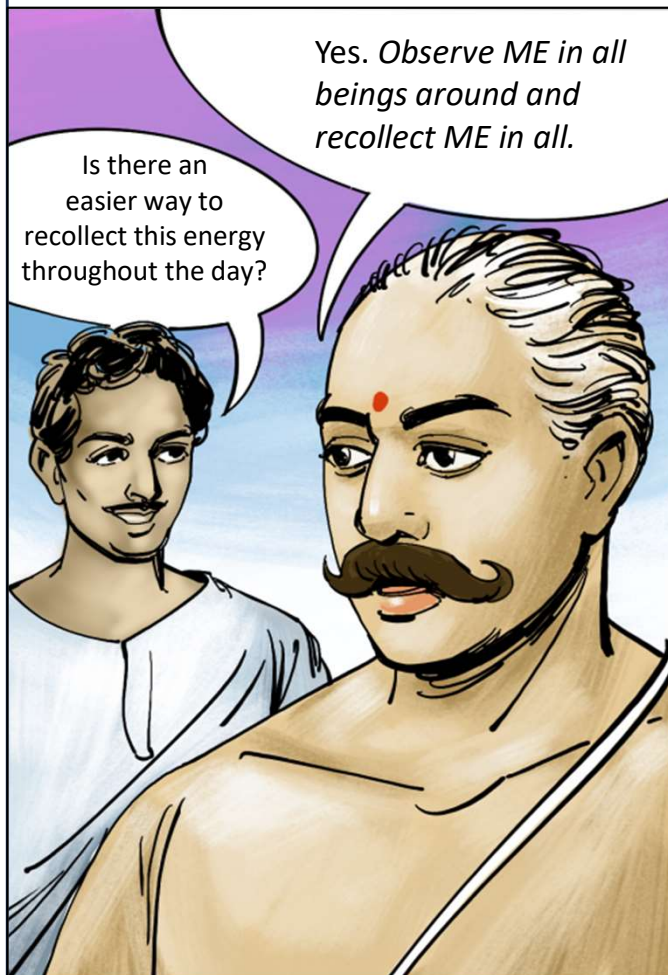

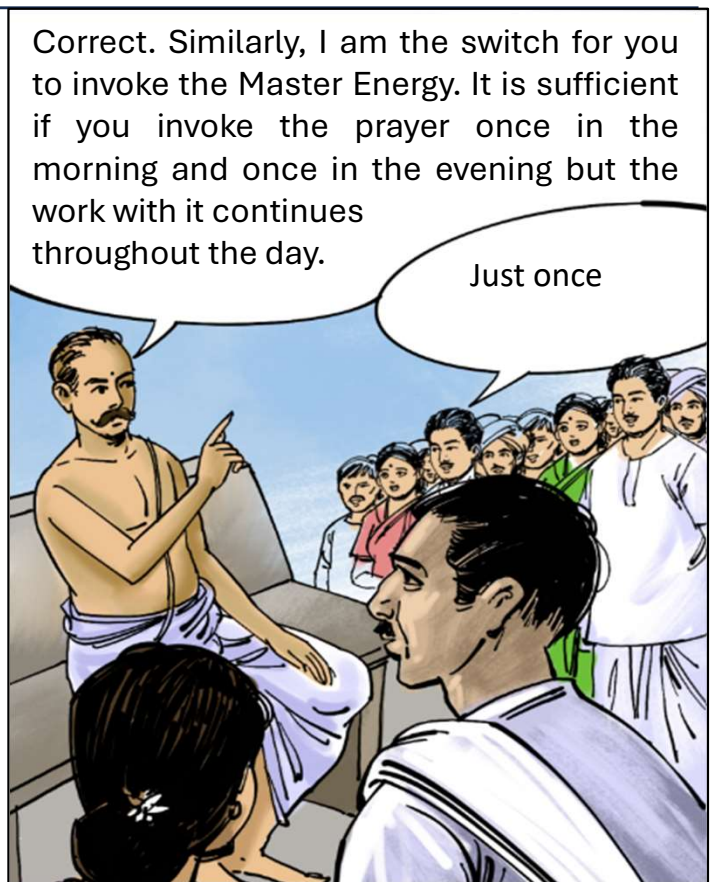

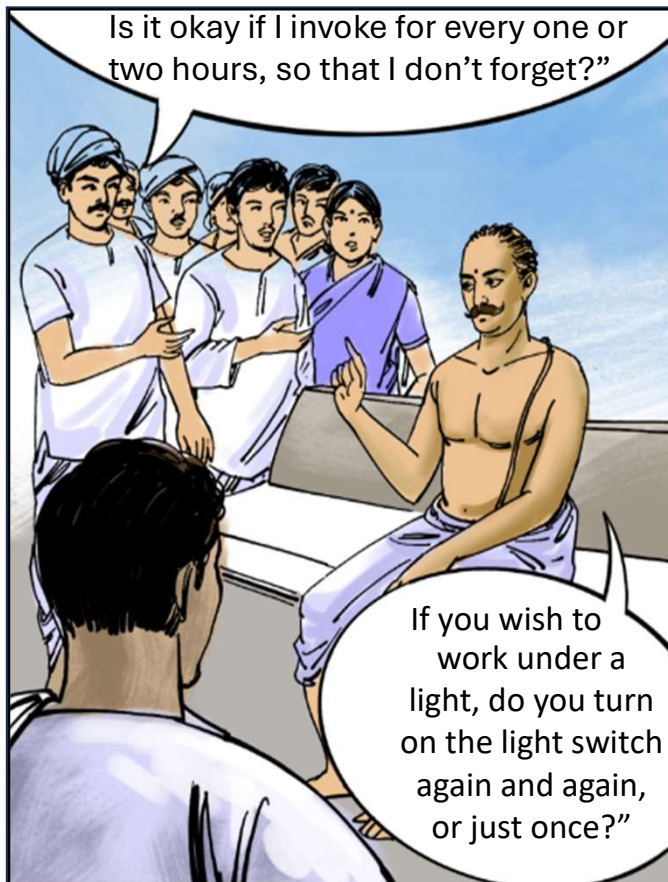

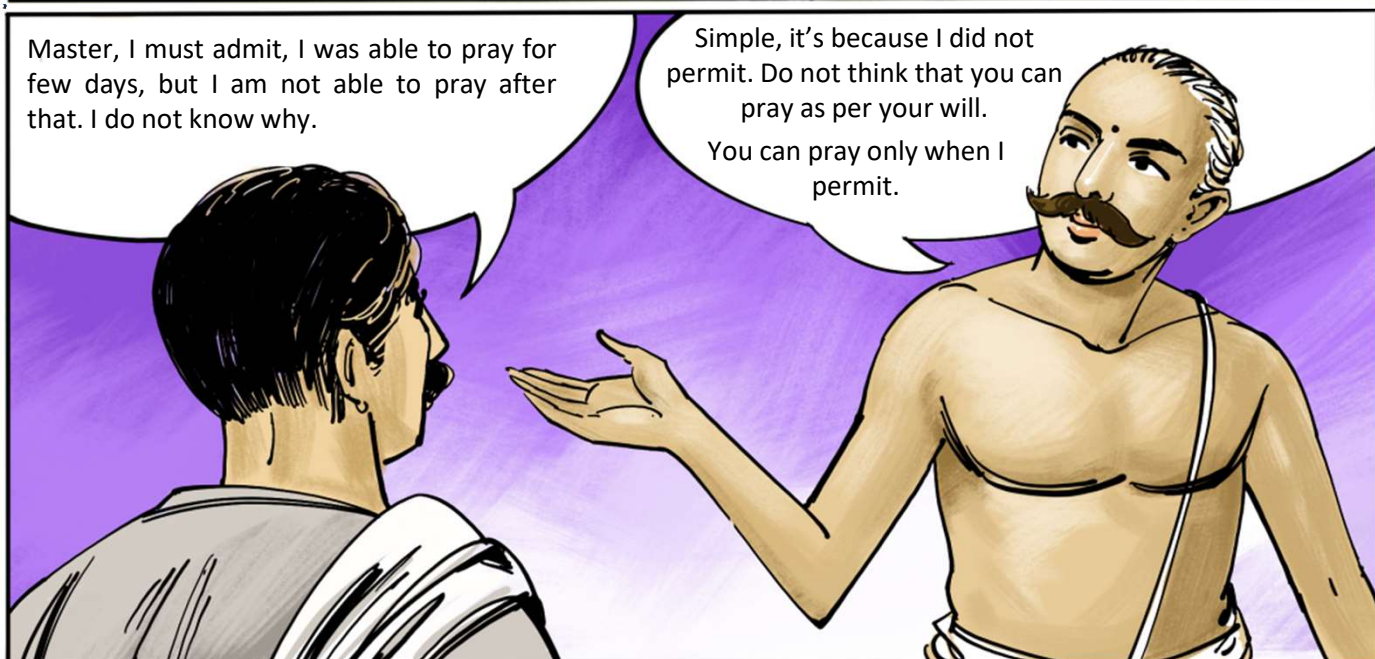

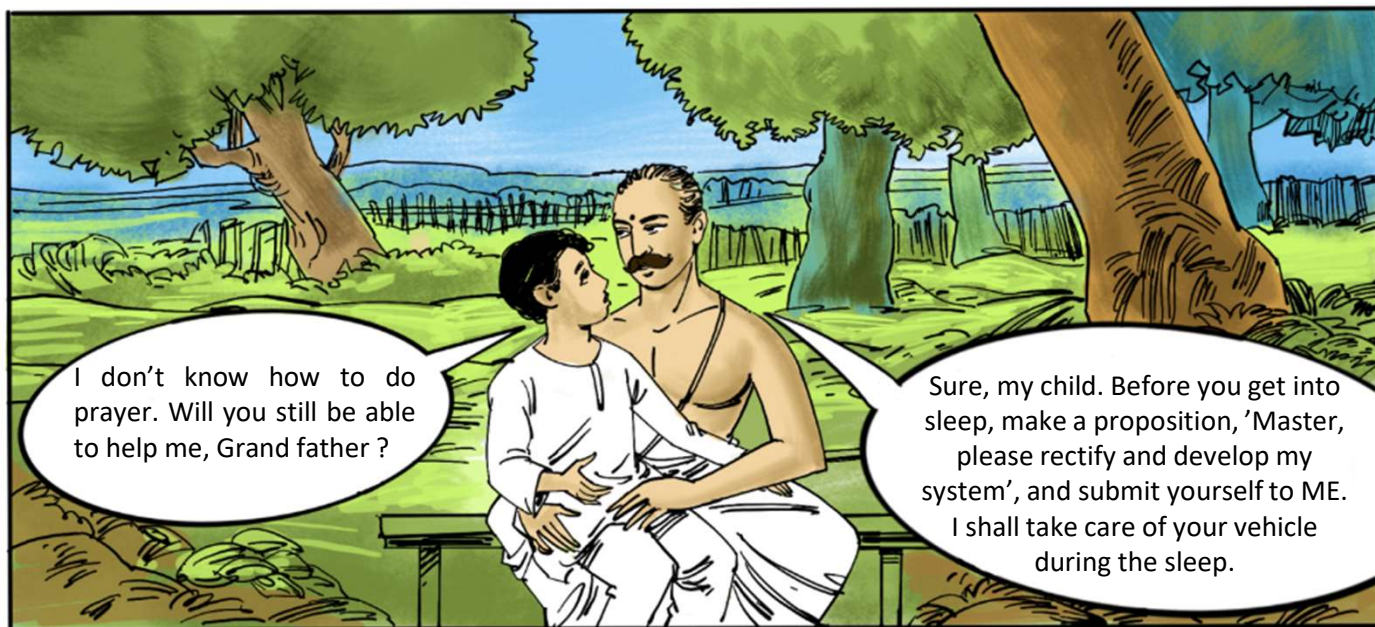

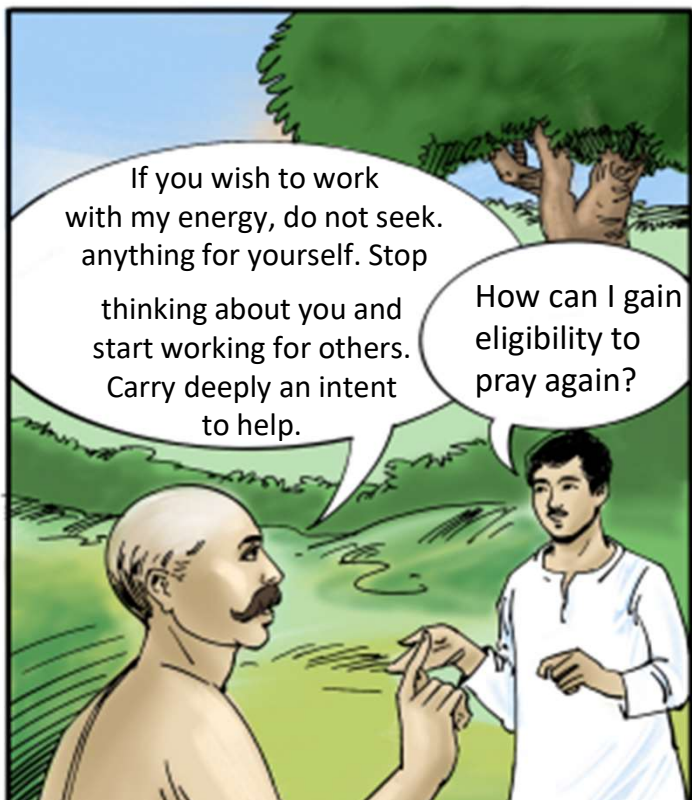

Some of the enthusiasts who attended the first prayer continued to follow the process while some others dropped off. Few had some doubts, and few others found difficulty to be regular, despite having an intention to be regular. One day, while Master was walking on the banks of river Kaveri, some followed him to seek clarification and guidance on the yoga.

Everyone present there were enthralled that Master was giving out the ancient-most wisdom of yoga in the most suitable manner for the modern age.

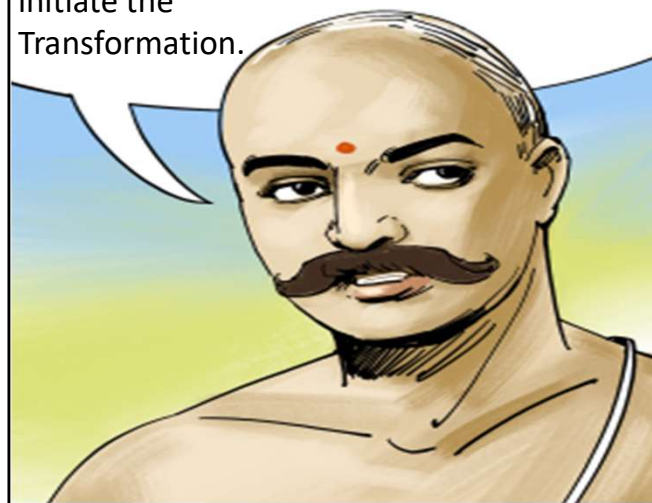

As the days passed by, the word spread and people from distant places started getting touched by Master's yoga. The Yoga Friends School, true to its name, became a hub for transformation.

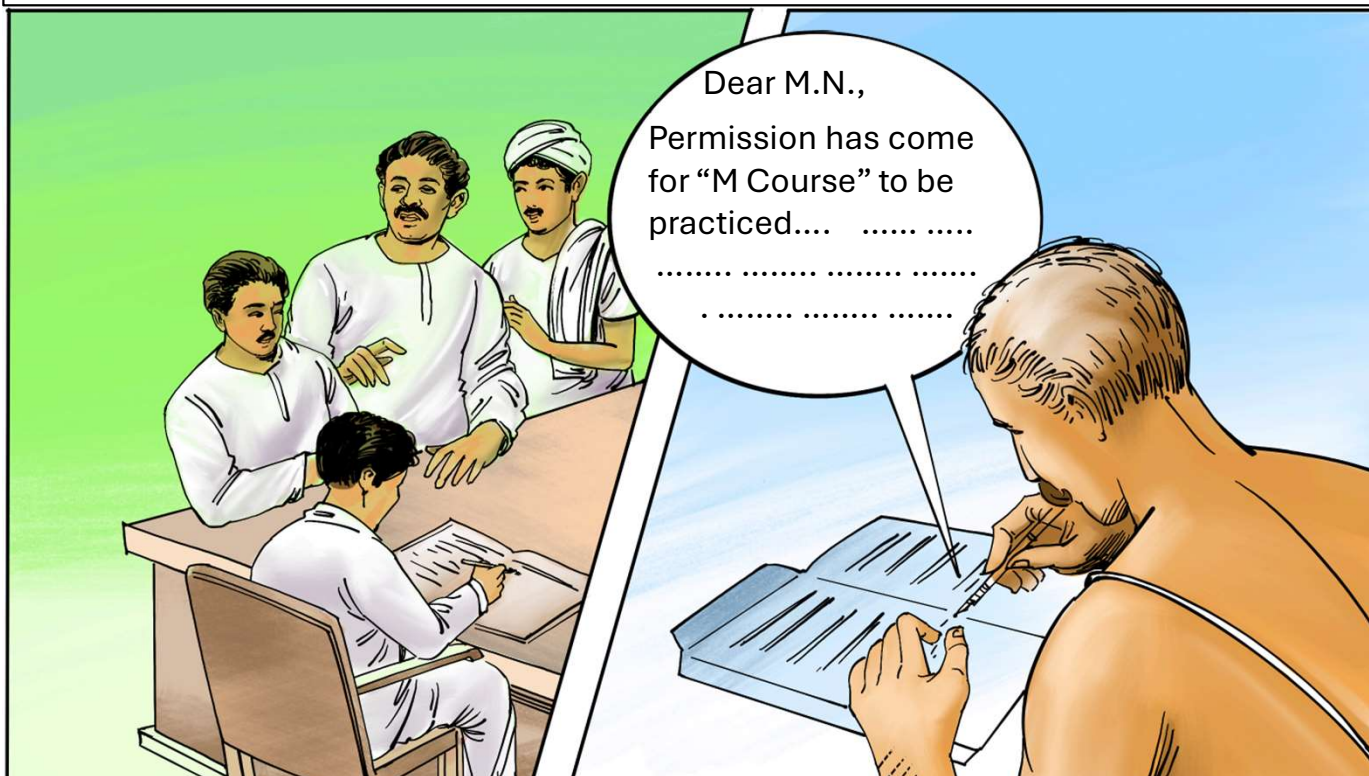

He gave out different courses for different purposes. Most of such courses were in English and are popularly known as "Mystic Mantrams". When someone enquired why he was giving them out in a mystic way, he said:

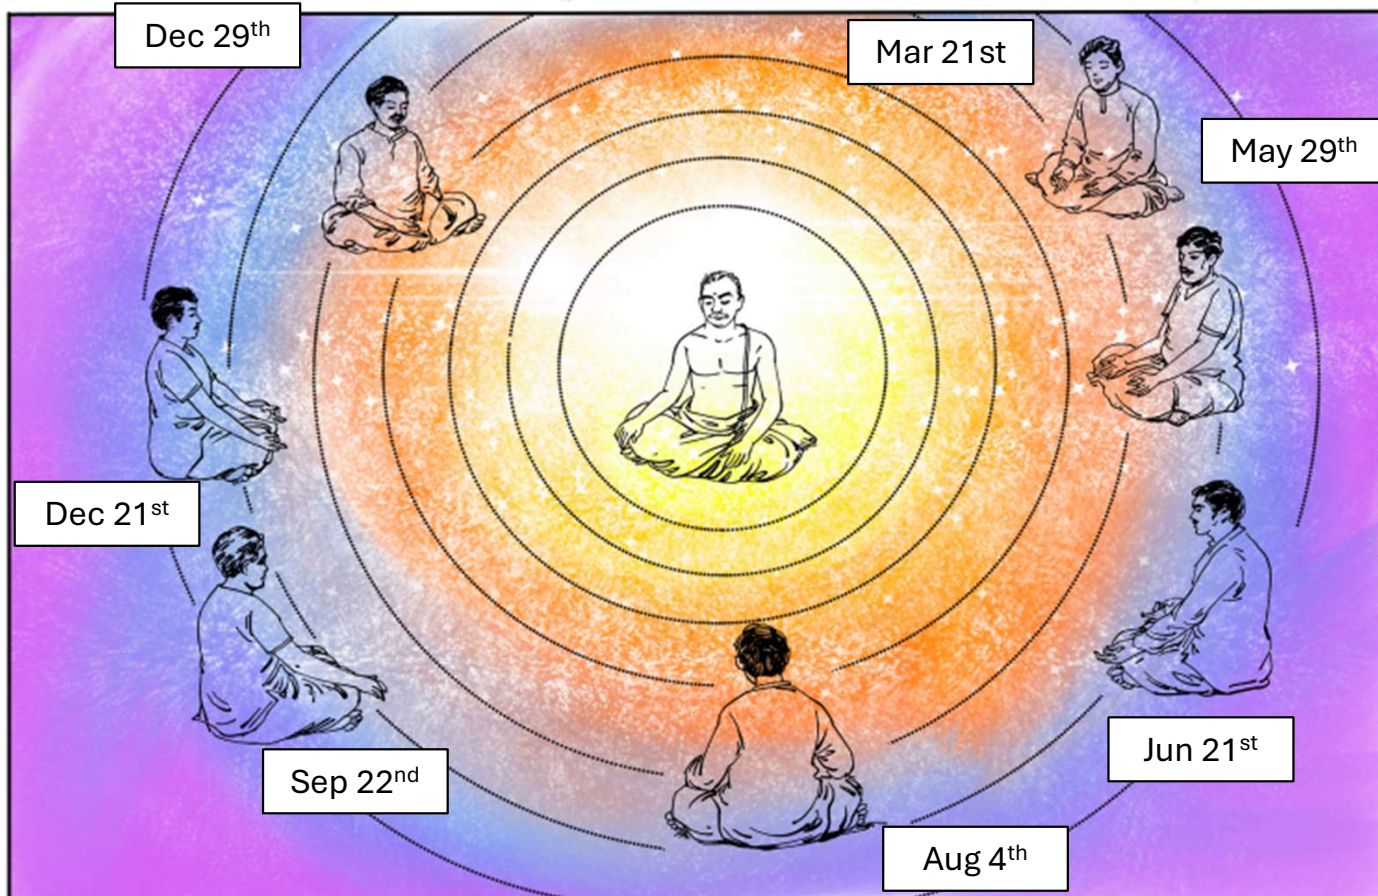

The mind always grows inquisitive about something that is new and ignores that which is known before. Though the essence of teaching is not new, it is given in a new language to ignite the inquisitiveness and initiate the Transformation.

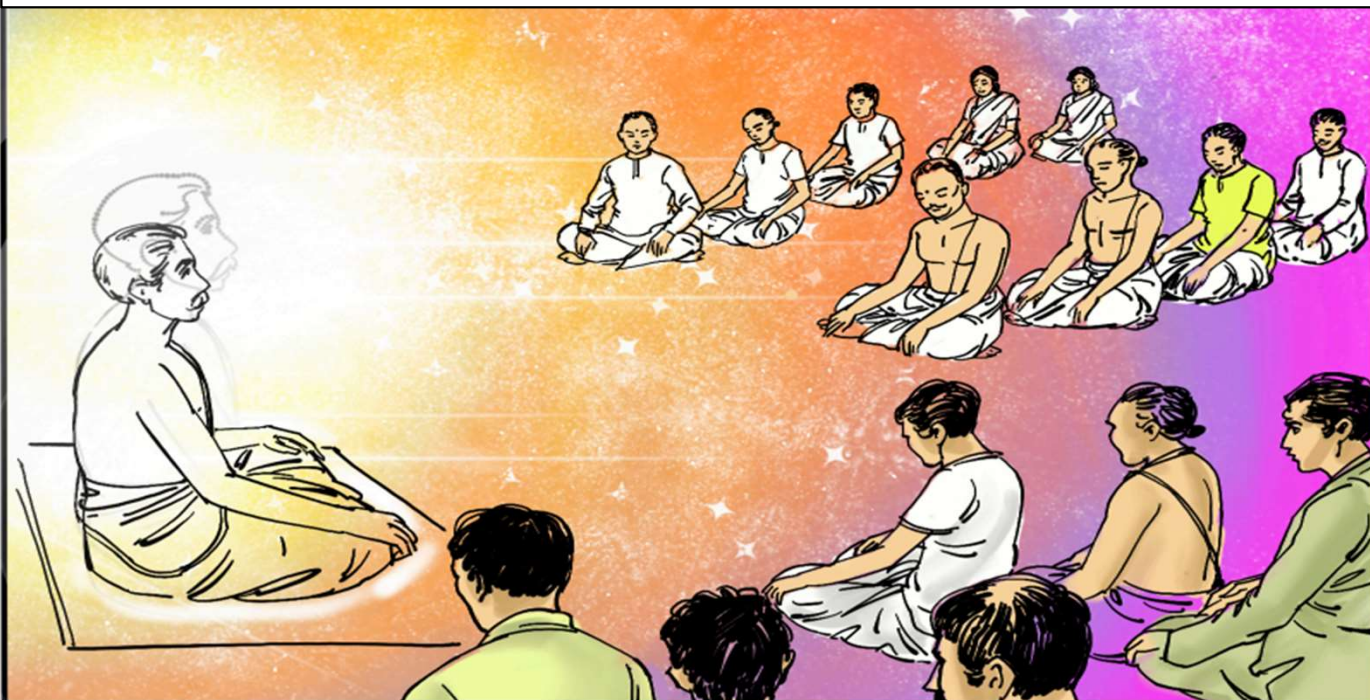

Master C.V.V. also used to have correspondence with all mediums that seek guidance and used to give instructions on special courses, prayers and adjustments.

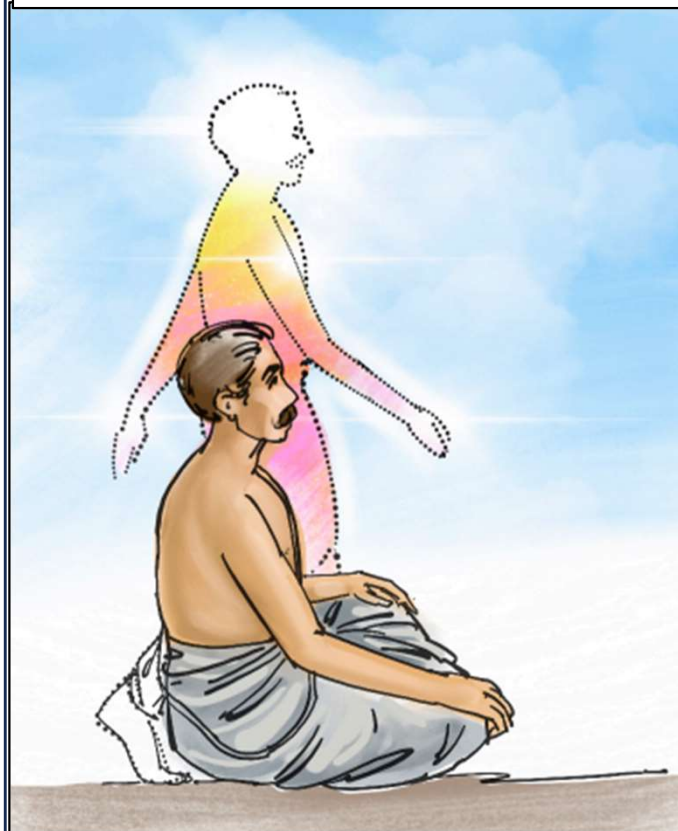

He conducted yoga congregations during December 29th, May 29th, equinoxes, Solstices etc.

He revealed the path to immortality, explaining that through constant yoga practice, the formation of a subtle body, known as the golden body, and eventually a causal body, known as the diamond body, is possible.

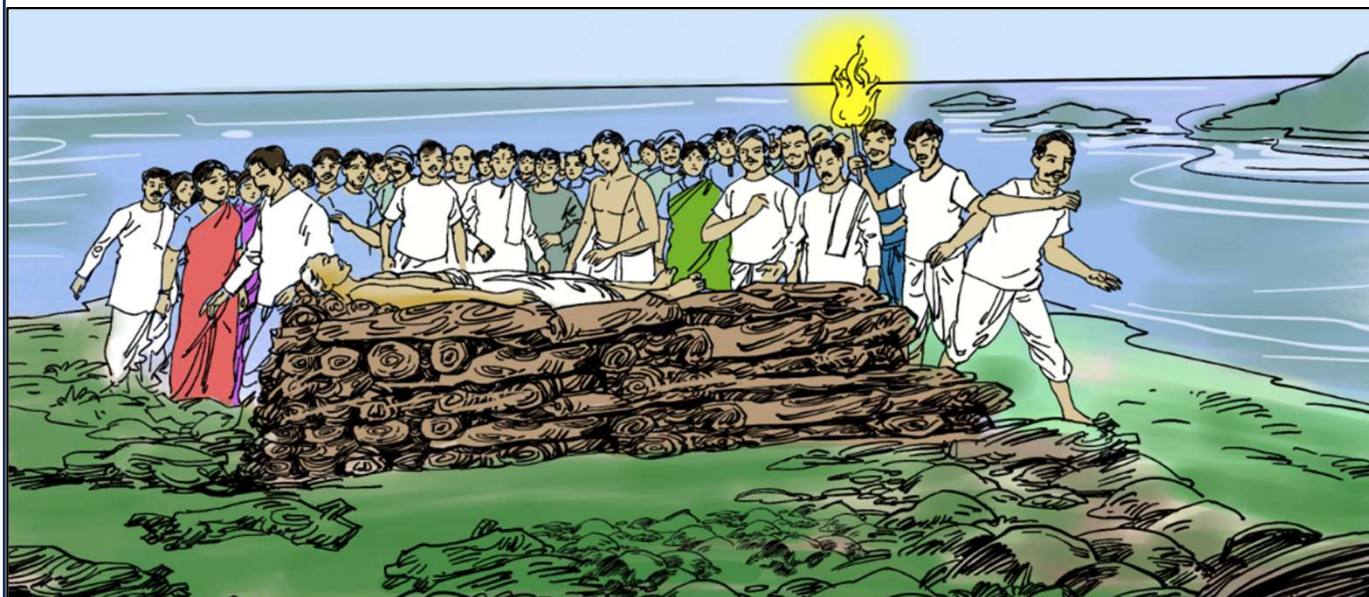

With such a golden body, one would transcend limitations like disease and death, and he had demonstrated that by leaving the body and returning to it after a few days.

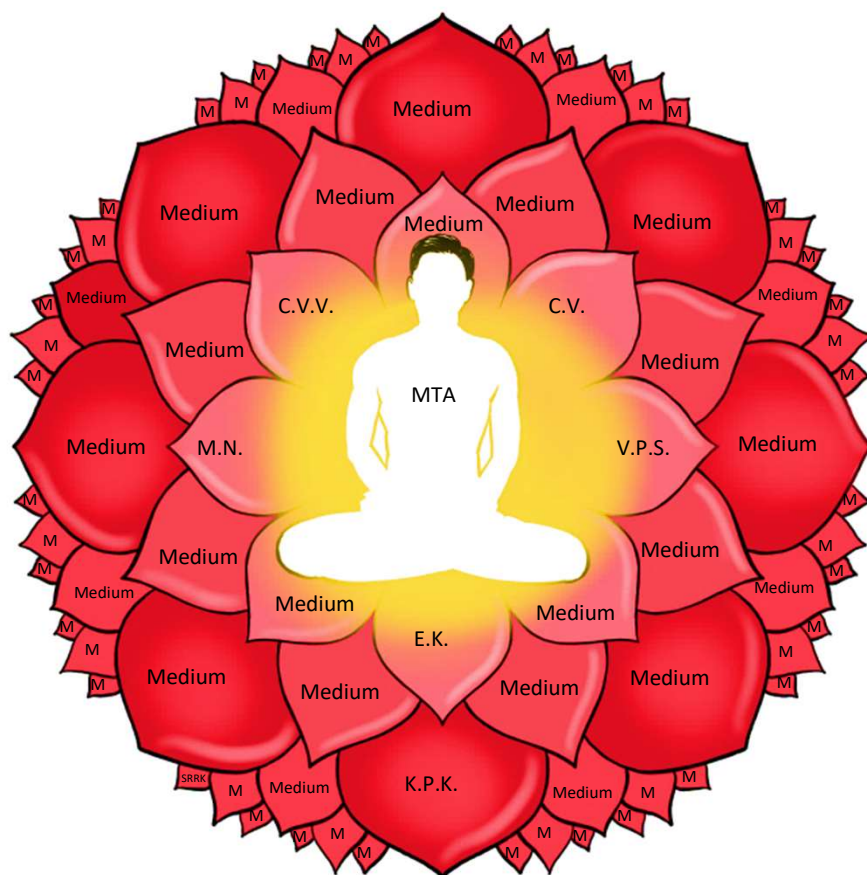

Once, people around him thought he was no more but were surprised to see him back alive after a couple of days. This he repeated 18 times, giving confidence on his promise "andariki amaratvam, andariki brahmatvam".

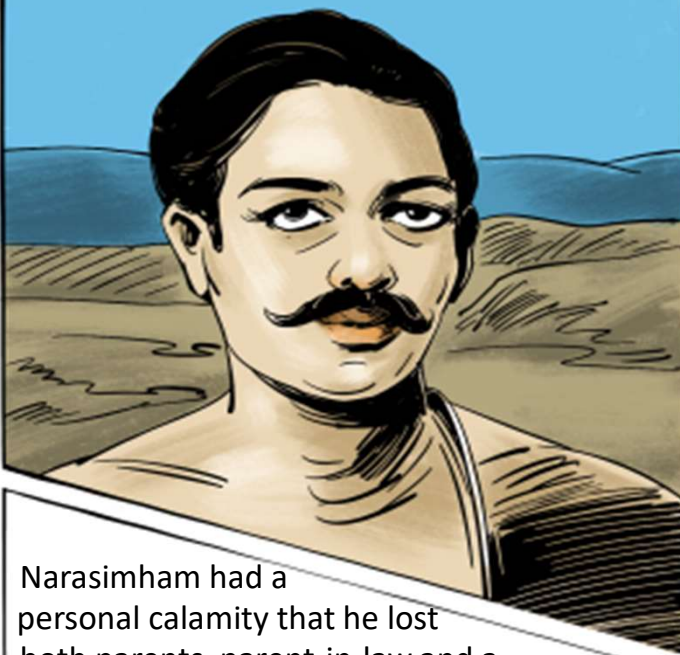

Master C.V.V. left his physical sheath on 12th May 1922 but continues to give his presence to all those who submit themselves to the path.

He promised that whoever follows yoga for 12 years shall attain the etheric body. The lives of Sri Potharaju Narsimham, Master M.N., Master V.P.S, Master E.K., Sri Kotta Rama Kotaiah Garu, Master K.P.K. and many others stand as shining examples of this promise being fulfilled. Many truth seekers have followed these mediums, spreading the path of Master C.V.V. yoga.

Amongst those followers of C.V.V. Yoga, Mynampati Narasimham (Master M.N.) stands as a Pole Star, who had dedicated his life for the spread of Yoga, initiating and guiding many disciples.

Narasimham had a personal calamity that he lost both parents, parent-in-law and a younger brother in a short span of about 3 years of time. That left a sense of void in him, leading him to depression.

Narasimham was an advocate practicing in Ongole and is a nephew of Tanguturi Prakasam, who is known as Andhra Kesari.

Yes of course, I know a Master who not only knows how to transcend but who can also guide. He demonstrated reinstatement of life into dead.

I neither understand the myth of death nor the truth of life. Can a man transcend the death?

In the 1919, Narasimham visited his maternal uncle Dr. Janakiram, who was staying in Madras and shared the agony and distress that he was suffering from.

Dr. Janakiram, explained that Master C.V.V. has an ability to scan through the past lives of beings, rectify their limitations and set the beings on the path of progress.

Sure, there is a congregation, December Call on the 29th of Dec. Let us travel by the immediate next available transport.

I would be grateful to you, if you could take me to the Master.

Granted !
Walk-in.

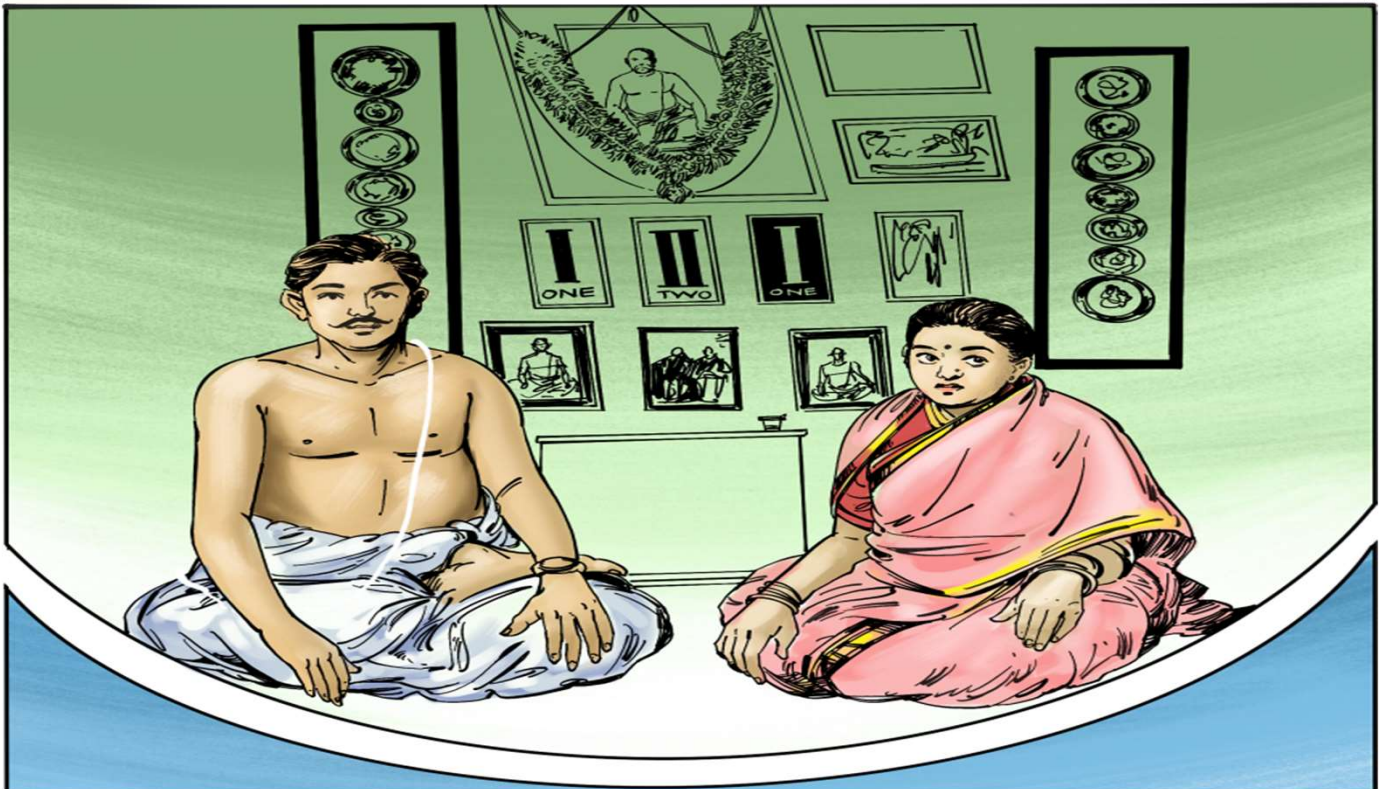

Dr. Janakiram and Narasimham reached Kumbakonam. As they reached Master C.V.V.'s yoga school, they found the Master at the threshold of the Yoga School Friends Society, as if waiting for someone. As the Master already knew Dr. Janakiram, he welcomed him with a smile. He looked at Narasimham and smilingly asked:

What for have you come?

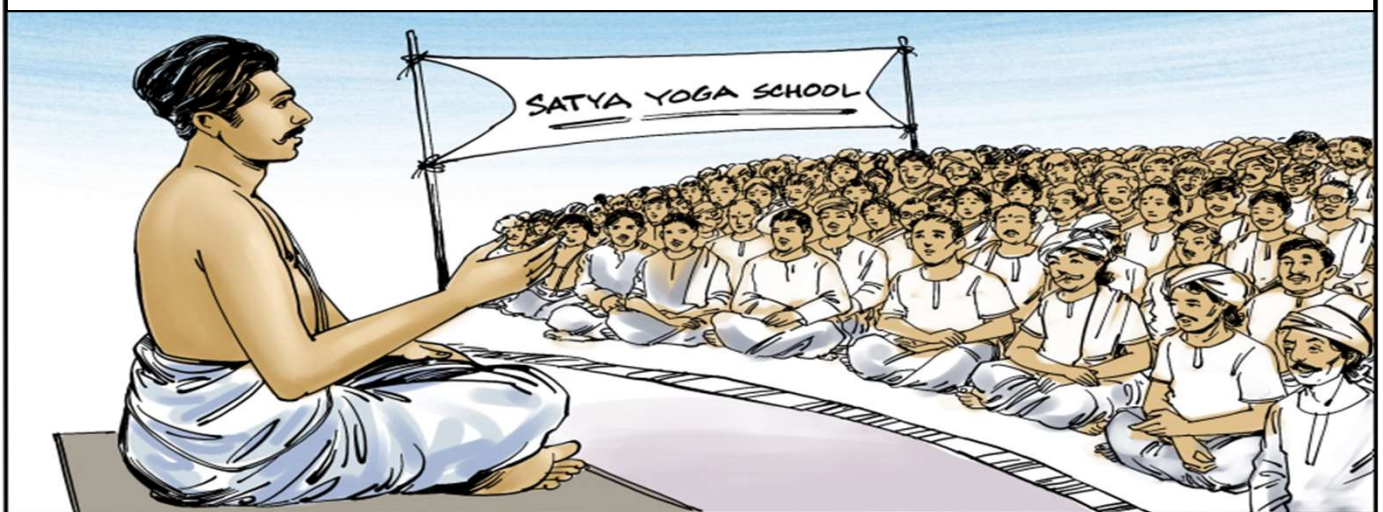

I have come for peace.

Narasimham felt so much of peace and joy in the heart. He was initiated into Master Yoga and was given the medium number 666.

Soon, Narasimham started leading prayers and many disciples who joined him in prayers got miraculous cures for long due illnesses. He followed the yoga of Master with much commitment, while he was initiated in 1919, even by 1921, Master C.V.V. visualized in M.N. the future Master, and therefore called him the Little Master.

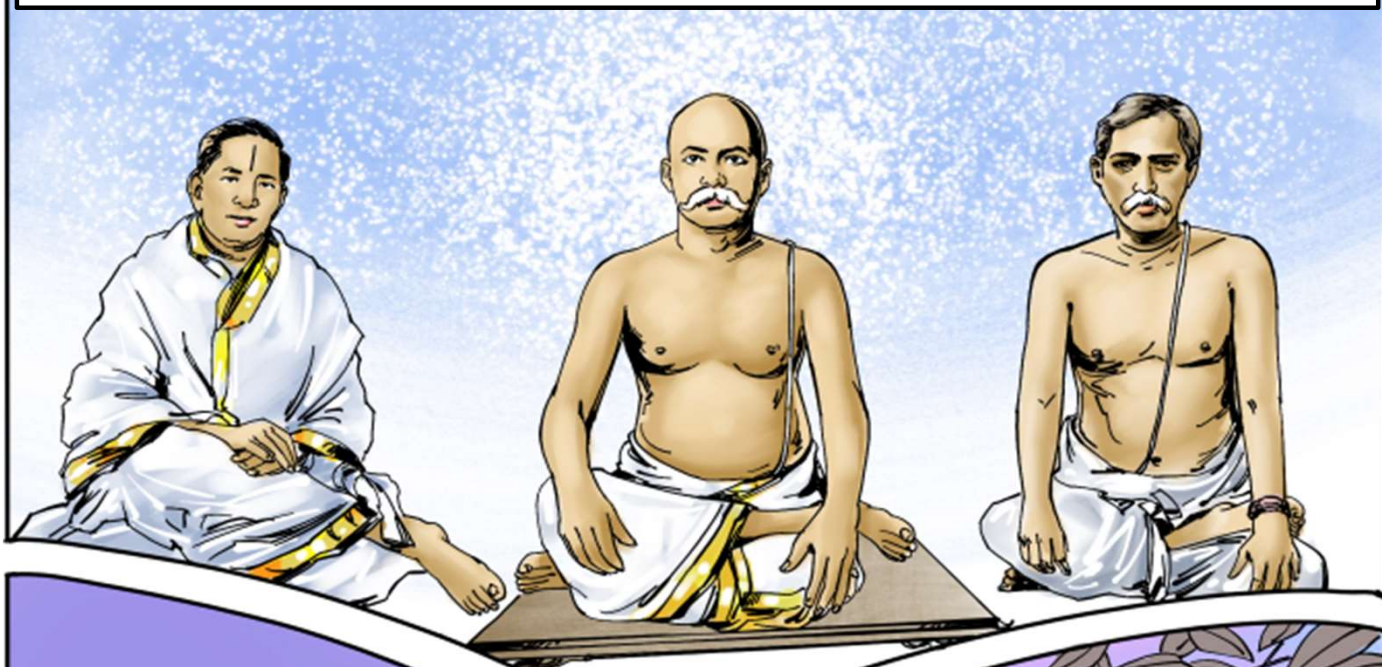

On 21st March 1927, Master M.N. established Satya Yoga School in his own house as a branch of the Yoga School at Kumbakonam and relentless worked in the direction of “Prana Treat and Yoga Teach,” initiating around 1200 persons in his lifetime and curing innumerable diseases through Prayer.

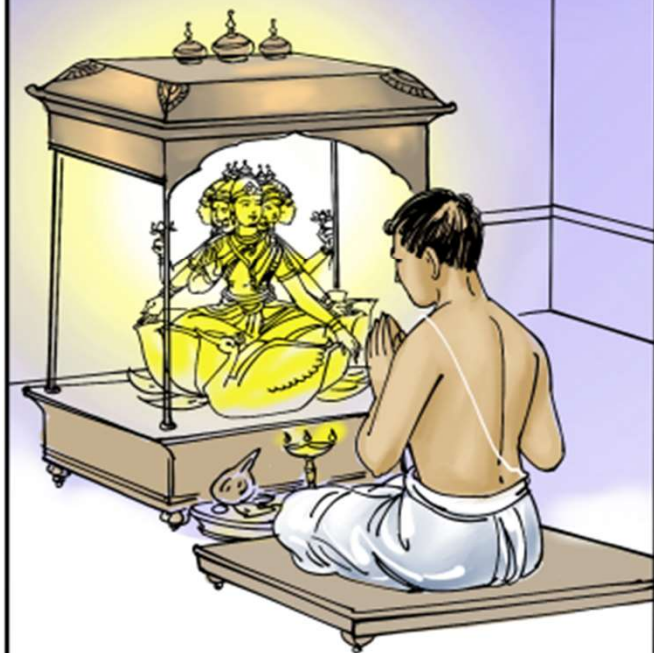

Master C.V.V. prophesied that his energy will travel all over the globe starting from Europe to South America to North America and then back to India via Australia. While the energy chose Master E.K. to be the medium to cross the oceans and continents, it is Master M.N.'s invisible hand that guides the groups in the East and in the West.

Master C.V.V. said that he would initiate 1000 mediums and even demonstrated in the case of Dr. Ekkirala Krishnamacharya, who is fondly called as Master E.K., that being in physical form is not mandatory for him to initiate a disciple.

Master E.K. had a deep bond with the Gayatri Mantra, right from his 7th year. Goddess Gayatri, who is often referred as Veda Mata, is his friend, teacher and guide.

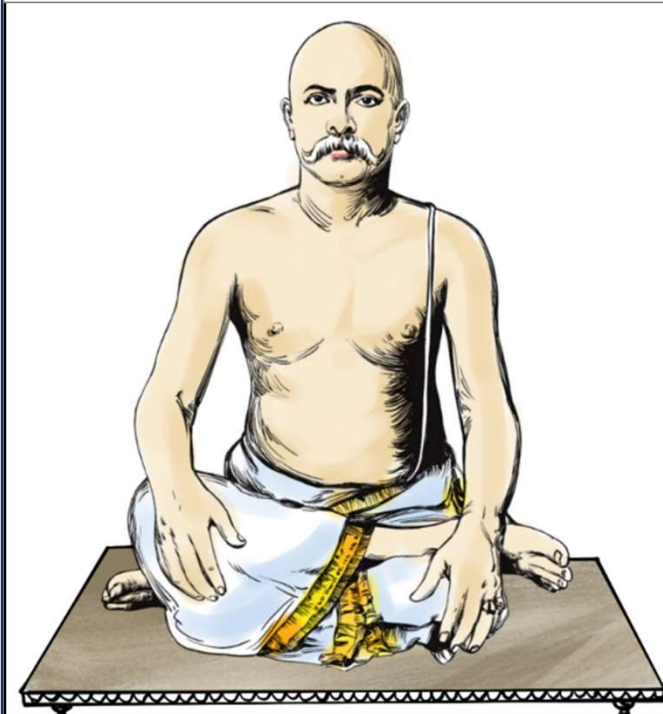

During his graduation days, he used to go to Shanti Ashram and sit under a Ficus Religiosa tree from Friday evening till Monday morning chanting Gayatri.

After marriage, Master E.K. set up a new house in Guntur and had a picture of Goddess Gayatri in his shrine room and started meditating. After a month or so, when he closed his eyes, he started seeing a different picture; he was seeing the lower part of a person.

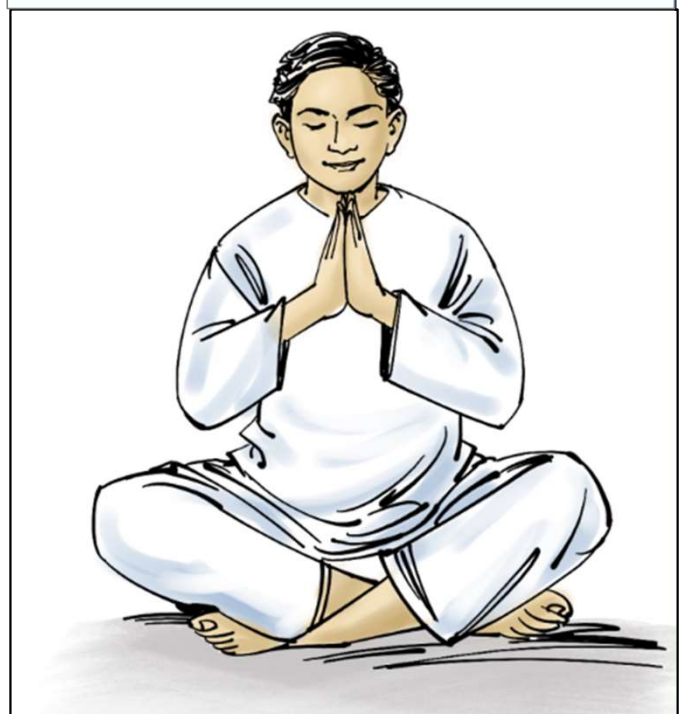

The upper portion was gradually revealed, the face could be seen clearly. The picture of Master C.V.V. has magnetic, majestic, peaceful and blissful appearance.

Throughout the meditation, the same vision remained stable. Day by day, the vision became clearer. After a few days, the image began to reveal more details: the lower half appeared as a strong and sturdy person, while the upper half resembled Gayatri Mata.

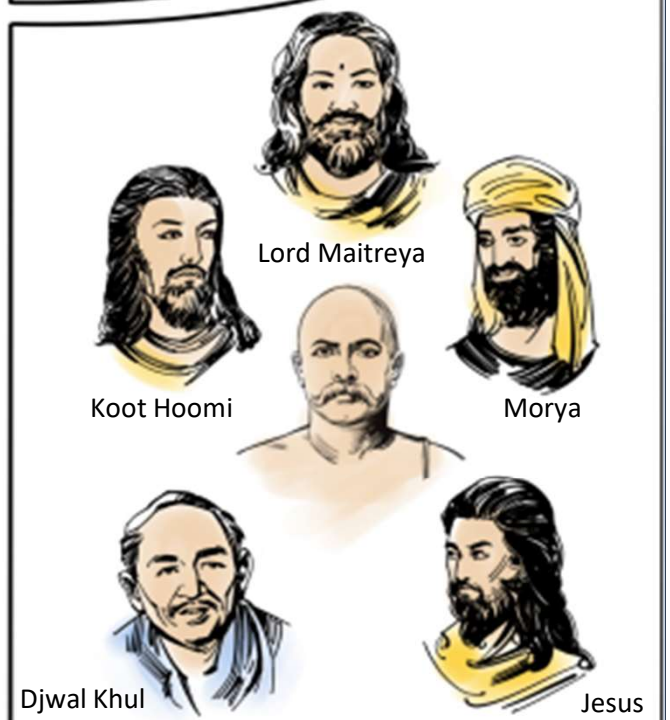

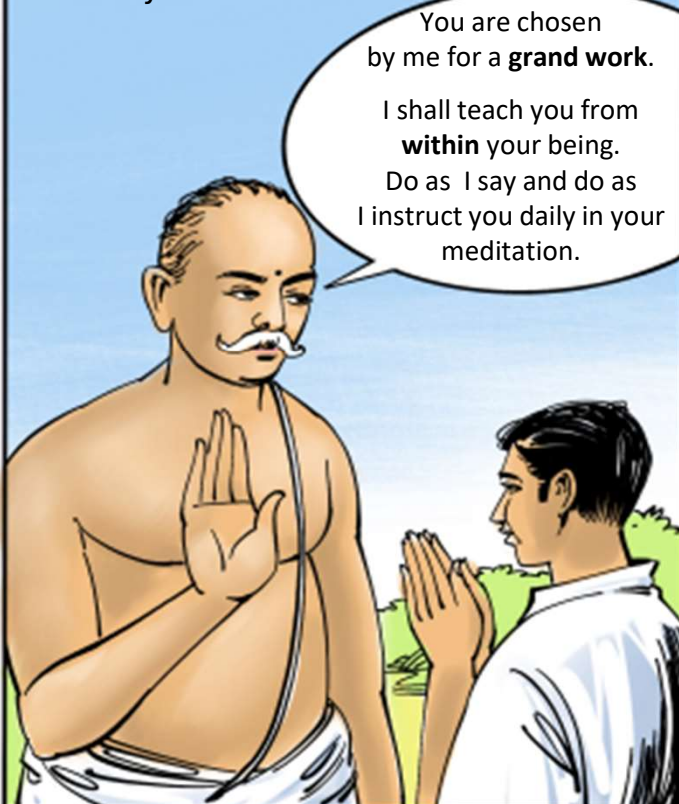

Krishnamacharya could not recollect who this new person was, but it looked the man who made way into his meditation settled down comfortably in his heart.

A few days later he went to Gudavalli upon the invite of Sri Rajagopala Rao in whose prayer hall, he could see the picture of Master C.V.V. a noble and majestic countenance emanating power, peace and quietude! Master E.K. was immediately connected with Master C.V.V. From the moment Master E.K. consciously came to know of Master C.V.V., the Master appeared and started speaking to him in the vision.

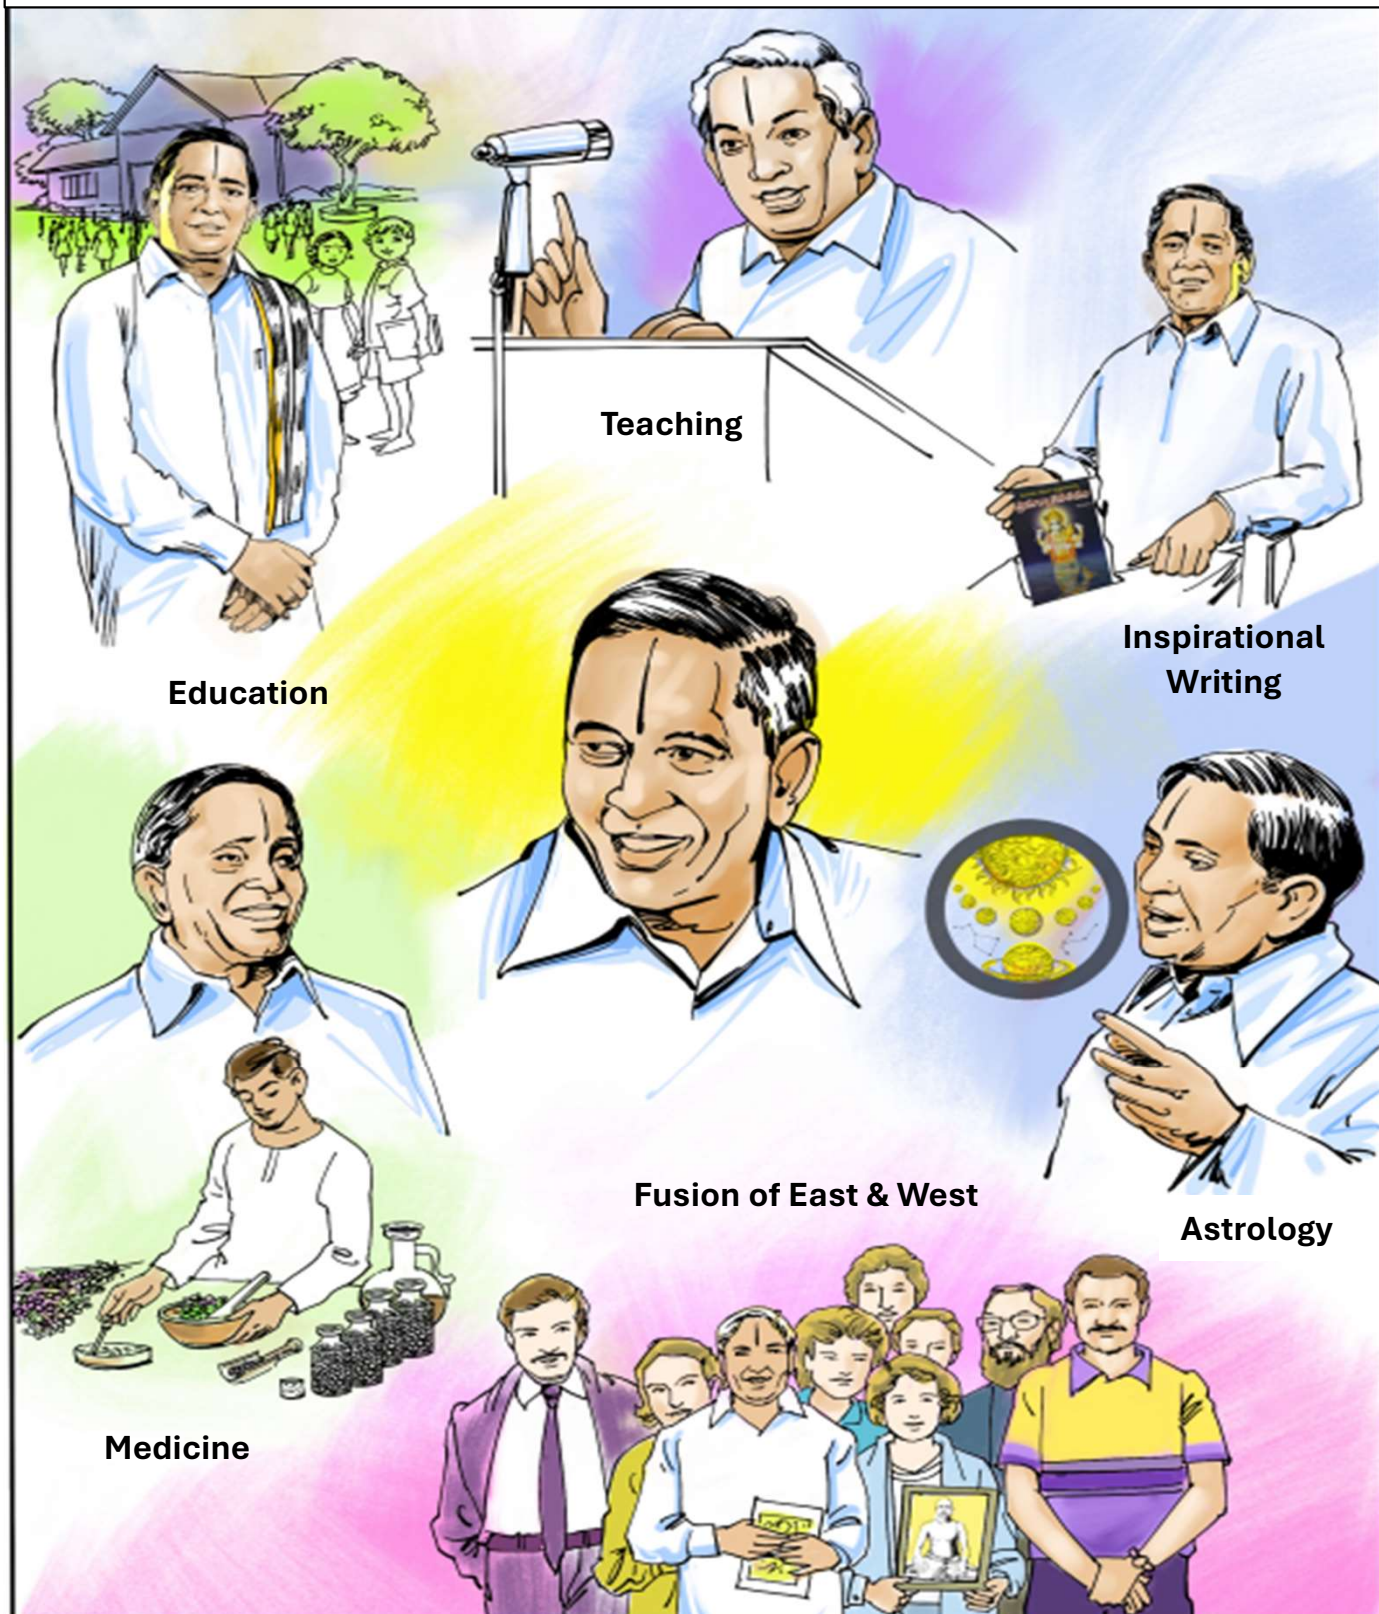

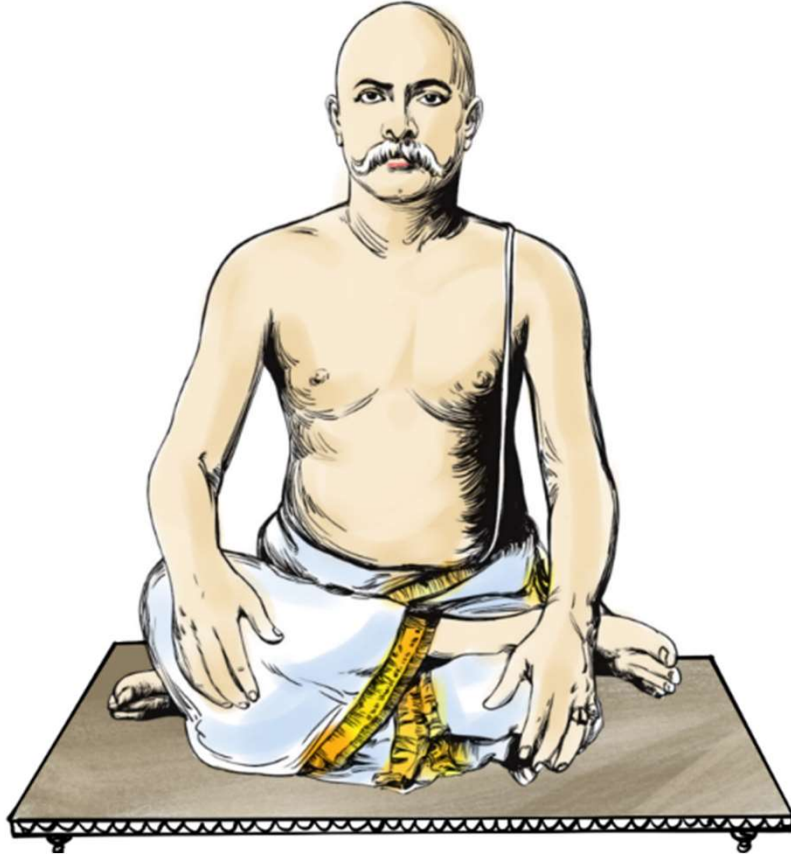

Soon after as per the Divine Plan he also was able to realize the connection between Master C.V.V. and the Hierarchy.

To carry forward the spiritual path he had shown, "The Word Teacher Trust" was founded by him in November 1971, in loving memory of the great World Teacher, Lord Maitreya.

Master E.K. played a significant role in the spiritual fusion of the East and the West, guiding truth seekers toward enlightenment. He taught Homoeopathy, Astrology, Yoga, Palmistry, and Ancient Wisdom from both traditions, seamlessly integrating them with Master C.V.V. yoga. Through his teachings, Master E.K. initiated thousands into the experience of Synthesis, embodying the brilliance of a multifaceted diamond.

(A Painting based on the description of the form that appeared to Master E.K)

His form is worshipped far and wide,
In every home, He does reside.

As shadow, guide, and steady hand,
He blesses all, both near and grand.

Thus descended, the Grand Master C.V.V.

(Translated from the song 'Parama Gurvu Avatarinche C.V.V.' in the book Bharatiya Balasiksha)

Reflect and Respond: Lessons from Stories

To ensure that stories offer more than just entertainment, we are introducing reflective and interactive elements to deepen learning. By adding discussion prompts, questions, and creative activities focused on the key values from the story, we encourage readers to connect with the story on a personal level. Encouraging family or group discussions helps transform the story into a shared experience, fostering deeper reflection and understanding.

Please answer the following questions.

1. The human body is a composite of two parts, they are ...
..... (Page 6)

2. How does the body of matter transform into a body of light?
..... (Page 15)

3. What was the promise made by Master C.V.V.?
..... (Page 16)

4. If we wish to work with Master C.V.V.'s energy, we need to.....
..... (Page 21)

5. What is the name of this yoga?
.....

In your own words, write a brief description (not exceeding 6 sentences) about what makes Master C.V.V. yoga special and how it works.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

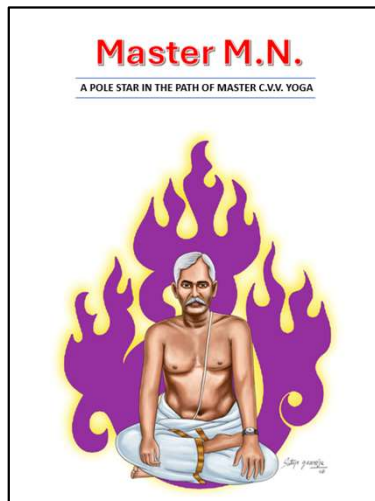

If there are any points in this book that you do not understand or need clarification on, feel free to send your questions or suggestions to the email address: storybooks.feedback@gmail.com

MASTER C.V.V.

Master C.V.V. once gave an advertisement in a leading English daily newspaper, inviting those who did not want to die to approach him. He brought the energy of the Aquarian Age to our Earth and with its help he aided the disciples attain the body of light.

He had demonstrated that one could transcend physical limitations like disease and death with such a body by leaving the body and returning to it after a few days. He made planetary adjustments and gave Bhrukta Rahita Taraka Raja Yoga.

Other books in this series

The World Teacher Trust – Global, Switzerland.