Invocation

May the light in me be the light before me.

May I learn to see it in all.

May the sound I utter reveal the light in me.

May I listen to it while others speak.

May the silence in and around me present itself,
the silence which we break every moment.

May it fill the darkness of noise we do,
and convert it into the light of our background.

Let virtue be the strength of my intelligence.

Let realisation be my attainment.

Let my purpose shape into the purpose of our earth.

Let my plan be an epitome of the divine plan.

May we speak the silence without breaking it.

May we live in the awareness of the background.

May we transact light in terms of joy.

May we be worthy to find place in the eternal kingdom OM.

Full Moon of Taurus, 22nd of April, 2016, 07.23 am

Message of the Month of Taurus

The month of Taurus reminds us of the bull. The bull has two horns. So also the month of Taurus generates dual energy such as will and desire, aspiration and ambition, self-welfare and social welfare, emotion and inspiration. In the pairs said above, one is desirable for growth while the other is undesirable. Desires shall have to be replaced by goodwill. Ambitions should be replaced by noble aspirations. Selfish growth shall have to be replaced by groupal growth. Emotion shall have to be replaced by inspiration.

The bull is strong. It is strong either way. If it associates with goodwill, it turns out lot of goodwill work. If it associates with desire, it would be very devastating. Anything with Taurus is strong. In Taurus, one has to be careful enough to make the right choice for the year to come. The bull must necessarily be threaded and yoked for appropriate cultivation. In the month of Taurus, the aspirants shall have to review their activity in relation to goodwill, aspiration, inspiration and so on. Let not the bull be a stud bull. Let it be transformed into a sacred bull to be the vehicle of the Lord.

In between the two horns of the bull, there is the centre which leads one to the valley of Vaisakha. The valley of Vaisakha is presided by Lord Sanat Kumara. The other name is Subramanya. Relating to Subramanya at the brow center enables aspirants to develop goodwill which is in tune with the Divine Will. Daily contemplation at the brow center, visualizing the Lord Sanat Kumara at Vaisakh Valley enables reception of energies for appropriate life activity. The valley in between the eyebrows of the aspirants is truly the way to reach Vaisakh Valley. Be at the feet of the Master of Vaisakh Valley and realize the purpose of life. Such is the subtlety of work the aspirant needs to do in the month of Taurus.

Message of the Teacher

The Virtue of Inseparability

The one who develops inseparable association with the Divine, who serves the Divine in the surroundings, tends to be devoid of Illusion. He finds the way. He finds the beauty of Divinity at work. The knowledge reveals to him. Detachment is a byproduct. Such ones cannot be deluded. The deluding ones complicate themselves when they attempt to delude the devotees/disciples.

Gita-Upanishad - Lord Sri Krishna -

Be A Yogi

"TAPASVIBHYO ADHIKO YOGI JNANIBHYO API MATO ADHIKAHA KARMIBHYASKADHIKO YOGI TASMAD YOGI BHAVARJUNA"

"Arjuna! Yogi is considered to be better placed when compared to a penitent, a man of knowledge and a man of skillful action. Therefore, be a Yogi." (6/46)

Commentary

Amidst humans, there are many who follow the path of penitence. Through penitence, they attain Brahman. There are others who follow for the path of knowledge. They also attain Brahman through knowledge. The penitent and a man of knowledge seclude themselves from the general stream of life and live a life of exclusivity. Then there is a third category of men who are eternally engaged in actions. They skillfully act to succeed but they cannot attain Brahman. They are in the thick of the society while the other two are away from the society.

But, the beauty of the Yogi is, he contemplates to stay aligned, knowledge reveals to him, he acts in society without being conditioned by society or by his own actions. He does not stay exclusive as a penitent or as a man of knowledge. He is not conditioned by his actions just as other men of activity. He has best of both sides. He is and he is not in the society. He is eternally associated with Brahman. Knowledge remains his handmaid. To be a Yogi is the most ideal state for the human. He is free in and out of the world. He suffers no irritation. He suffers not any conditioning. He can be a householder, a businessman, a professional, a worker and even a ruler and yet, he remains aligned with the Brahman. For the reasons above said, Lord Krishna suggests to Arjuna to become a Yogi. The Lord himself is the universal Master of Yoga.

Message of Lord Maitreya

Our Objectives

To dispel blind beliefs, superstitions, fear and darkness of ignorance.
To transmit Will, Fearlessness and Knowledge through our teachings.
To continuously eliminate misbeliefs and misunderstandings.
To promote cooperation, to build communities and help them grow collectively in their awareness.

Residing in the residences situated in the mountain ranges, we conduct all our activity from a distance. Occasionally, we enter the world of activity.

On a daily basis, we support all who strive in Goodwill.
Those who wish to grow in harmony are eligible to relate to us.

Message of Master Morya
- Maruvu Maharshi -

Advice - Inflammability

To advise is but common. Advice has no value when it is given without being sought. If the person is not of value, his advice is also not valuable. Advice is generally sought from valuable persons. When sought, advice need not be necessarily given. It should be seen if the seeker is genuinely interested to know or if he is casual. The advisor shall have to be as genuine as the seeker.

When the above said conditions are fulfilled, the advice would be one of great value.

It gives but to appropriate inspiration. It causes unfoldment of mind. It satiates the urge in heart. It promotes the related action.

Know that a true advice is a highly inflammable energy.

Master Koot Hoomi
- Devâpi Maharshi -

Other Possibility

We subtly knock at the doors of life that exist in you. If you are alert and keen to listen, you would be able to open them.

The doors we speak of exist in the heart. If only you can open the doors of your heart, you can listen from the distance, you can feel the distant places of beauty, you can relate to the beings of distant land. The beings you meet as you open the doors of the heart do not let you know their address. They relate and inspire you. Their presence gives assurance and a sense of protection. They are very proximate to you. They are on the other side of the heart while you are on this side of the heart.

The aspirants are recommended to open themselves to other possibilities and not to limit themselves only to objectivity and the related, limited possibility

Message of Master EK

Substance and Form

We can break the pot. We cannot break the earth of the pot.

An article may break. But, the substance in the article cannot be broken.

‘I Am’ the substance, unbreakable.

All that belongs to ‘I Am’ like name, form, social status, family identity, gender, race are all perishable.

Learn to be ‘I Am’. Fall not into the perishables that sprout around ‘I Am’.

Shirdi Sai Sayings

Encountering Situations

Submit to Me all events that encounter you in life. See Me as the aggregate of the encountering situation. Think of Me as the situation. Recollect Me in the situation. You shall be liberated from the limitation of the situation. This is My promise.

Message of Sri Ramakrishna

Ceremonial Work

Ritual and other ceremonial work are necessary only so long as one does not acquire a true love for God, that is, so long as tears of ecstasy do not flow and the hairs of the body do not stand on end at the mere mention of His name.

On Secret Doctrine

Personal God

Each human being is an incarnation of his God, in other words, one with his “Father in Heaven”, just as Jesus, an Initiate, is made to say. As many men on earth, so many Gods in Heaven; and yet these Gods are in reality ONE, for at the end of every period of activity, they are withdrawn, like the rays of the setting sun, into the Parent Luminary, the Non-Manifested Logos, which in its turn is merged into the One Absolute. Shall we call these “Fathers” of ours, whether individually or collectively, and under any circumstances, our Personal God? Occultism answers, Never. All that an average man can know of his “Father” is what he knows of himself, through and within himself. The Soul of his “Heavenly Father” is incarnated in him.

This Soul is himself, if he be successful in assimilating the Divine Individuality while in his physical, animal shell. As to the Spirit thereof, as well expect to be heard by the Absolute. Our prayers and supplications are vain, unless to potential words we add potent acts, and make the Aura which surrounds each one of us so pure and divine that the God within us may act outwardly, or in other words, become as it were an extraneous Potency. Thus have Initiates, Saints, and very holy and pure men have been enabled to help others as well as themselves in the hour of need, and produce what are foolishly called “miracles”, each by the help and with the aid of the God within himself, which he alone has enabled to act on the outward plane.

Saturn

The study of Saturn – the principle and practice of the principle in daily life, transforms an aspirant into an accepted disciple. To be theistic in life is one thing but to be able to neutralise the pairs of opposites in one's own being is another thing. Theistic, there are many. Living above the pairs of opposites through neutralisation of such pairs, there are few; in fact, they are very few. These few have the good opportunity to work for the Hierarchy. For this reason, the principle of Saturn needs to be practised in daily life.

Saturn is the dweller on the threshold of the Temple of Initiation. He affords opportunities through difficulties in life, which are messengers of what is wanting in life and what is to be learned in life. A good student is one who learns from difficulties. Ill health is a difficulty which gives the message that the one with ill health needs to unlearn certain habits and learn certain other habits. Likewise, economic and domestic difficulties are also messengers that knock at your door to unlearn certain habits of thinking and action, and learn certain others.

Discipleship

The Rider and the Horse

Neither theory of service nor aspiration to serve can make a person a real server. It is the impulse of the soul that truly plunges one into the field of service. When the soul gains sufficient sensitivity to service, it receives impressions to serve and such impressions shall have to be translated into action through a trained personality. Trained personality is important for service to manifest. If not, it often misfires, misunderstands, misinterprets and manipulates the true service. An untrained personality is generally a biased personality due to likes and dislikes. It looks for its own comfort of work and is not willing to set itself upon the altar of offering and sacrifice. An untrained personality is like an unwilling horse to ride upon. One cannot fulfill its purposes due to inadequate training of personality.

The urge in the soul to serve gives enough impetus to train the personality. Let the personality be trained concurrently as one attempts acts of service emerging from within. Let the horse be prepared by the rider of the horse. Throughout the globe, there are many emotional aspirants who would like to serve. Seldom they realize that their personalities need to be trained.

Five Varnas 2

The Veda gives the key to five.

Five is considered the mystery number. Twelve are the qualities of creation, seven are the principles that enter into the qualities and disappear. The resultant chemistry is the creation which is $12 - 7 = 5$. The one who knows the key to number five knows all the secrets of creation. Five is the son, 10 is the father. With the help of 5, the son, the father can be realised.

Very early in the morning I recollect the holy sandals of the Master in the inner chamber of my heart.

Kapila

Four Models of Creation 8

Master the Play

Mind associates with surroundings. It picks up the qualities of the surroundings. It seeks riches, when around rich men. It seeks wisdom when around wise ones. It seeks accomplishments when around the accomplished. It seeks sense objects when surrounded by them. It is at peace when surrounded by peaceful people. When applied upon all-surrounding, all-permeating, universal consciousness, it becomes THAT.

Even speaking about THAT disturbs being THAT. Leave the mind 'there' on THAT. Leave the mind there upon the unknown. The triangle of actor, acted and action disappear into One Existence. This is said to be 'silent equanimity'. Silence prevails at all times. Even teaching happens in silence. Listening happens in silence. Silence prevails over all actions, speeches and thoughts.

The Enigma

The separative consciousness leads to personality. Love of one's own personality leads to pride. The pride of self has prejudice for others as its other face.

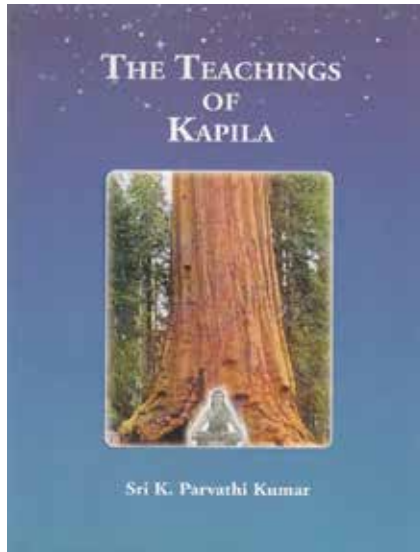

The pride and the prejudice copulate to give birth to children (thoughts) in pairs - love - hate, illusion - ignorance and jealousy - indifference.

The mind thereby becomes a platform for the conflicting thoughts, creating a world of enigma. The pursuit of happiness with this background is like chasing one's own shadow in the sunset hour.

Things and people appear to such a mind as 'ours' and 'others'. All actions are coloured by this basic distinction held at personal level, family level, caste level, creed level, race level and national level.

The distinction as 'ours' and 'others' leads to prejudiced actions. When judiciousness is lost, cobweb of errors emerge in actions. Man twines endlessly, illusioning that he is entwining. For every failure, the causes are seen in others. The whole world seems to be in disorder. Disagreement with surroundings mounts up. Discord surmounts. Moulds of thoughts get crystallised. Man is imprisoned. Separate therefore from separativity.

Ashram Leaves

The Moon

The Moon is the God of Mystery. He bifurcates the whole universe into the twofold process of waxing and waning.

There is the waxing and waning of the Sun light too through the northern and southern sojourns of the Sun.

The time cycle for the total process is a month for the Moon and a year for the Sun.

The Moon principle works through the planet Moon to us. The Moon principle of waxing and waning works through the Sun for the Devas. For the Devas our Sun is the Moon and our Jupiter is their Sun.

Thus our lunar and solar paths form the following pairs along the corresponding Lokas (planes of existence).

- (Earth of Men) Earth - Moon (Earth of Pitris)
- (Earth of Pitris) Moon - Sun (Moon of Devas)
- (Moon of Devas) Sun - Jupiter (Sun of Devas)

Our Moon is the husband of our Earth and our Sun is the husband of our Moon. Hence our Moon is male to our Earth but female to our Sun, who is in turn, female to our Jupiter.

When our Moon and Sun interchange sexes, then the mind becomes masculine, embracing the soul as his wife. The result is manifestation of buddhi (Mercury). Ponder upon this process.

Lord Dattareya

Dattatreya is the Grand Teacher or "Guru principle" in the universe. The teachers in various planes are the manifestation of the one teaching principle who is referred to in the ancient Indian wisdom as Dattatreya.

Fire

D-Mat

Agni causes formation and deformation. There is materialisation from subtle to gross, and dematerialisation.

Now we are thinking in terms of dematerialisation, called, the electronic concept of "D-mat". The electronic process of dematerialization is called "D-mat". We are now also speaking with abbreviated terms, like CD for compact disk, PC for personal computer. Likewise, everything is abbreviated from its elaboration. It is also a process of dematerialisation. The names of the Masters are also abbreviated; we say K.H., D.K., M.N., C.S.G., or E.K., C.V.V. This is also a process relating to the return.

We have now "D-mat" shares certificates of corporate bodies where we don't see any certificate of shares as a paper, but it is there electronically. We don't have so much transportation of paper in the form of letters, now it has become e-mail. The letter is there but not the paper. So, no more paper work; the paper has taken to the etheric form; it is electronic paper. Much paper is reduced. We don't have airline paper tickets, we have e-tickets, they don't even call them electronic tickets but just e-ticket, e-mail, e-correspondence, e-documentation. Every thing is lifting itself up from the gross physical to the subtle.

Already things are tending into the subtle. Man also tends into the subtle and moves in air. That is a prophecy. Not only the paper is de-materialised even the human being will also dematerialise in future and will become an e-man. E-man means "etheric man", which is prophesied as the Superman.

All this is the work of Agni. He is the foremost one and stands first to all that we know. It is the Will before the Will that we know, before the Love that we know, before the Light that we know and even before the Life that we know. Anything we name is secondary to Agni. That is Agni!

Agni is the cause of creational manifestation and de-manifestation. It brings the Essence into the smallest detail, remains with the Essence and takes back the Essence; it remains even in the atom. That is why when we cause the fission of the atom we can see how much Fire emerges. Thus, it is not by quantitative dimension that we can decide the degree of the presence of Agni.

Agni

Cow

Worship of Cow is equivalent to moving around the Earth.

Questions and Answers

Medicine for Fatigue

Question: Master, of late, I get into fatigue at action. I am tending to inaction. I know that inaction is dangerous. I fear that Saturn is taking over my being.

Answer: Dear friend, Inaction is truly dangerous. The fall is certain when there is inaction. The field of creation is called the field of action (Kurukshetra). It is like being in the football court. You need to be in action in the playground. If not, you are kicked out. So is the creation. You have to act.

The fatigue is due to wrong approach to action. When you are oriented to the fruits of action and when you do not generally gain the fruits, you get fatigue. Results-oriented action produces frustration, fatigue and depression when the results do not come forth.

Action for result is a mundane understanding. Action for the joy of it is wisdom. When you act in relation to your duty (your obligation), orient only to action but not to result. The player in the football field must necessarily play his role regardless the number of goals that his team has made. So, also keep acting unmindful of results, since action is obligatory.

Action is Nature's work through you to fulfill others. As long as your work helps the surroundings, it has a place in Nature's plan. Therefore, be in Action for others' welfare. Therefore, be in action to fulfill the surroundings. Eventually, you would also be fulfilled.

An Introduction into the Work of Cosmic Fire, 54

4. The Solar Fire

The Second Logos, the Solar Fire - 2

I told you about the atom, where the electron and the centre, which we call the positive force, interact, and there is the existence of atom. The interrelation between the electron and the centre of the atom is the 2nd Logos. What is it called? The centre of atom is called in science by what name? Nucleus! So, the nucleus is the positive, and the electron is the negative. And then, the activity that happens in between the electron and the nucleus is the 2nd Logos.

So, in all planes of existence TO BE is 2nd Logos. That is why we are all called beings. Beings are those who exist, and our existence is nothing but the existence of the 2nd Logos.

So, the 2nd Logos has to be seen in a dimension more than what is shown in the books. More often, the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Logos are given in the scriptures, but the source is always to be contacted by us through these three energies. The three fires put together are called AGNI. And it is Agni who manifests as the Viduta Agni, which we know as the Electric Fire. And then, it also manifests as Solar Fire or Surya Agni, and then, there is another fire which for our purposes we can call it, Chandra Agni. So, it is one fire that manifests as three. So, there is a 4th dimension relating to the triangle at all times. That which is the central aspect of the three, is also the higher dimension in the higher plane.

With this as a background, let us understand the Solar Fire. In atom, it functions as the activity that is being conducted between the electron and the nucleus. And then, it makes its own integration of atoms through a law of attraction, because attraction is the quality of this fire. It is called the chemical unity. Certain atoms gather effortlessly, and certain atoms, when they are brought together, they repel very automatically and naturally. To make yeast out of milk, what is it we do? We have to break the milk. Breaking the milk is by introducing certain chemicals which disintegrate the unity. Certain chemicals integrate easily, and certain chemicals get disintegrated, when they are brought together. This is due to the law of attraction and repulsion, which is an important quality of the fire, called the solar fire. Like the fire by friction, the solar fire has its own movement. The fire by friction moves in circles, and hence we have these spheres formed. And it has the law as Law of Economy, as was explained. The 2nd fire is a fire that moves in spirals, and it has a two-fold motion. It is descent and ascent. It can descend from spirit to matter and from matter to spirit. So, it is the messenger between the spirit and matter. That is why all messengers they belong to the 2nd ray including Saint Michael. Michael is the Cosmic Messenger. The Archangel Michael is the One who keeps moving from plane to plane bringing messages from one plane to another plane. They are like the postmen. We have a couple of Michaels here, two Spaniards who do the job of carrying messages. So, their work is to bring something from higher to the lower kingdoms and something from lower to higher kingdoms. That is why they are called Agnishvattas or Kumaras who carry messages from higher circles to lower and lower to higher.

Vishnu Purâna
CHAPTER XVII

Further Torments of Prahlada 2

After all efforts were proved futile, the boy was once again taken to the house of his teacher. As he stayed with the Guru, he was taught morality, ethics and behaviour. Again when he was brought to his father, he began to reproduce all he had learnt. The father quesitoned: "Do you know how to behave with enemies and how to behave with your own people? Do you know how to behave with neutrals and how to behave with past, present and future? Do you know how to behave with ministers, generals, the inner and outer circles of administration? Do you know how to behave with your secret agents, your citizens, with those whom you suspect and those whom you believe? Do you know what to do and what not to do, how to do and how not to do? Do you know how to make an ingress into the forest and clear off the many thistles and thorns? Now tell me how all this has been explained to you by your Gurus. I will be very much delighted to hear all that through your mouth."

Then the boy fell prostrate before his father's feet and spoke with his palms folded in veneration like a lotus bud: "Father, all this has been taught to me by my Guru, and there is no doubt about it. But what I received is something different. The methods of prevailing upon others by winning over, by bribe, by creating splits and by punishment, all these methods were taught to me, but in vain. I see no friend, no enemy and no neutral. I therefore find that this knowledge of politics is of no significance to me. My father! Do not be angry! When nothing remains for me to attain, what is the use of these various methods for attainment? When the one soul exists in all and when the one soul rules all, where is place for friend or foe? In you the Lord exists as one, in me the same Lord exists as another. That is why I make no distinction between friend and foe. Devoid of the knowledge of the Omnipresent One, all these rules are only to multiply the use of vocabulary. They cause the seeds of evil. When all these things lead to the ignorance of conflict amidst plurality, how can this be wisdom? How can knowledge be stimulated in the minds of those who want to follow ignorance? He who sees lightning and takes it for fire to be used is a boy. A deed is understood as a good deed by its virtue of liberation from bondage. It is knowledge which leads the mind from limitation to liberation."

The Square

Then there is the manifestation of the thought which is called the fourth state. Its symbol is the square. From out of the three, the fourth one comes. From zero, the consciousness springs up. From out of consciousness, reflection springs up. When you are conscious, you cannot be quiet. That is why it is said in the Scriptures that the consciousness is ever moving. 'Anapaga minim', they say. It means 'uncontrollable in terms of its movement'. Consciousness is ever moving, it cannot but reflect. As you wake up, you have to reflect, either you reflect upon that which is in the objectivity or that which is in the subjectivity. The reflective activity springs up from consciousness. Then there is the thought and the manifestation of the thought through action.

The Five-Pointed Star

Due to the inversion of consciousness, we have the symbol of a five-pointed star relating to number five. In the case of a five-pointed star, we find that two legs project downwards. The two legs that project downwards among the five arms of the star, they bring you to earthly contact. The two arms are considered as touch and taste. These are the two that will cause the related inversion. Until man gains the mastery over touch and taste, he is bound to earth. The other three arms represent sight, sound, and smell. There are three arms with the sound 'S' and two arms with the sound 'T': touch and taste, sight, sound and smell.

When you smell, you don't touch anything earthy. It only gives you the idea of earth. If there is no earth, there is no smell. When you listen, you are not touching anything earthy. When you see, you are not touching anything earthy. When it comes to touch, you touch something physical. When it comes to taste, you taste something physical.

Therefore, touch and taste bring us down. The two lower arms of the five-pointed star are the bridge to the earth to enable the consciousness to touch the earth. They are the landing wheels for the soul and enable the individual consciousness to land safely. To take off after landing, we should have the ability to withdraw the sense of touch and the sense of taste. That is where the ability to ascend into higher states of consciousness is held. If your two lower arms are stuck with the earth, you cannot go up, the flight cannot take off.

That is why the Scriptures speak of mastering taste and touch. People are bound in their consciousness by the taste. They think they die if they don't eat food all the time. Even today, you find people who convincingly feel that they die if they don't eat a day. Just one day, if they don't eat, they feel they die. To overcome the habit of food, the fasting has come to be. The ability to fast is one of the abilities of consciousness. You know Napoleon? He mastered food and sleep. That was his strength. He could fast and he could stay without sleep for unlimited number of days. That's how he generated will.

There is an occult group called Samanas. They do three things: to fast, to be silent and not to sleep. This is their practice. They develop tremendous strength in them. The strength is not in the physical food that you eat. The strength of Jesus was in his fasting. We cannot fast. Fasting is by attunement to the consciousness that you can overcome the demand of food by the body. Even today, in many systems, people fast only to develop the will. Then the taste is such a thing that binds you to the earth forever.

I don't suggest that you fast but be discreet in eating and in eating light food. Don't program your mind about eating.

The second aspect is the touch. The urge to touch also binds you to the earth. The greatest urge relating to touch is sex. Persons who are overpowered by sex, they continue to remain very inferior. Even great men fell due to sex. The power of consciousness flows exceedingly downwards when the mind is engaged in sex. These two sensations – taste and touch – cause an inversion of the being. You see Eva touching the apple and the consequent descent into the physical plane. Touch is the means of coming down to the earth. Taste is another.

Number five is already an inversion of number three. Number three is a thought of light, a thought of consciousness. Number five is a thought of the mind. The related planet is Mercury. Mercury relates to the intellect. If the intellect does not have adequate measure of consciousness, he can be the worst cheat. He can cheat people intelligently. But if Mercury is well associated with Jupiter, that means, if five is well linked to three, it can interpret the wisdom of the heaven for the benefit of the people on the earth. That is the beauty. Mercury in association with Jupiter can bring down the wisdom of the heaven. Five in association with three can disseminate wisdom and inspire people. But number five, without the association of three, will just be a juggler of words. He only makes beautiful mixtures of words and confuse people. There are many intellectuals with whom you cannot argue. An intellectual cannot inspire the consciousness. He can only win over the intellect of the others. Number five is the number of Mercury, and Mercury by itself has no power. In association with Jupiter – that is number three or a good thought – it can do excellent work.

Number six is an inversion of number two. One, two, three reflect again as: three as five, two as six and one as seven. With number two, the reflection is of consciousness. With number six, the reflection is of the mind. The mind reflects into the objectivity through the five senses and gets informed. Since it is an inversion, the reflection is more a deflection. You do not receive the information as it is. You receive as you want.

When we go to any place, we don't see what is there. We see what we want to see.

Number 5 is a vehicle for number 3. Without 5, 3 cannot manifest. Without 6, 2 cannot manifest. That is why we want that the mind and the senses are kept pure so that the higher can manifest through the lower. The need to keep the lower chamber clean is only to enable the higher to reflect well. Otherwise, the higher cannot reflect in the lower.

Health & Healing

Health Should Be Guarded

Health should be guarded. That health should be guarded is by no means a special information, isn't it? Nevertheless, it must be said, especially now "health should be guarded". The fires are raging on the planet, the consequence of which is seen as the fire of bombs, which are regularly used by humanity – one against the other. The woods are on fire, be it in California or elsewhere. The fires under the waters are raging causing Tsunamis and other coastal disturbances. Fires are raging and the planet is tending to be fiery. The temperatures are rising. There is much propulsion, much rapidity and much speed in the world, which is also due to the raging fires. The fire is at work and is esoterically seen as a fiery service. It is said to bring to humanity an evolution, which was never before. The fire also contributes to the consequent carbons, hence, health has to be guarded. Accepting the fire of life, and withstanding its consequential effects, is today's challenge for humanity.

Before every regeneration through fire, there is also burning of the fire. What is left out of fire is considered pure. Today the human thought itself is fiery. It has speed and power in it. From within, there is the fiery thought and around the planet, there is fiery manifestation. Hence, men need to guard health by raising one's own awareness from being just emotional and mental. The fire burns all constructions of mind and evaporates the emotional feelings. In this process of transformation of the emotional and mental state through fire, there are byproducts of carbon such as sicknesses.

Men should learn to move forward regardless sicknesses. Men should be learners enough to accept and endure incurable sicknesses and move forward in their awareness. Men should be as much learners as to realize that the physical body is but a vehicle and that men are the true travelers. On the way, when the vehicle breaks down, the traveler takes to another vehicle. So is man. To the traveler the travel is important. For that reason the vehicle is important, but the vehicle cannot decide the travel. The traveler decides to move forward with or without the vehicle.

Setting right priority, the ancients have forged ahead into light and shed light on humanity. Undue importance to the body and to the bodily requirements is also a factor contributing to the bodily sicknesses. When a horse is overfed, pampered and sheltered, it is no more effective for a journey. Let the human body be put to right use through right discipline. Paramedical service in this regard is of great consequence.

Inner Government

Dear Children,

Do you know that the planetary activity is governed by a team of subtle beings whom we call the Masters of Wisdom?

There is an Inner Government functioning on the planet to secure the planet and planetary beings and also to evolve them. This inner government secures and protects the planetary beings from the ignorant acts of the various governments that function with blind power. The strength of the governments in the world is the power that is not only bestowed on them by people but also usurped by them through manipulative means. The governments of people are no better than the governance by the kings and monarchs of earlier times. The kings and monarchs were blinded by power and did not care for the welfare of the people. Therefore, they were thrown out by the people. However, the situation did not improve with the elected representatives. They are also blinded by the power and therefore care not for the common people. They are hand in glove with the business and with the law and continue to manipulate the lives of the beings.

To secure the beings from all the diabolic activity of governance, there is an Inner Government functioning on the planet to counteract whenever there is an extreme crisis and danger to life of the people. You too can join this government by making the following invocations daily before you sleep.

“I bow down in homage and adoration to the glorious and mighty Hierarchy, the Inner Government of the world and to its exquisite jewel, the star of the sea, the World Mother.”

By this prayer, you are protected and guided for your growth and evolution.

Stories For Young People

Lasting Youth

In 18th century a mysterious man appeared in noble circles of Europe. He was highly educated, costly dressed and had an immense wealth at his disposal. He was of middle age, but aged witnesses assured to have met him in their youth and he appeared to be of the same age: a man of everlasting youth! Ladies of nobility vowed he had some medicine for this purpose.

An English duchess anonymously told a London newspaper in 1760 her adventure with this man, who called himself “Comte Welldone”. She was worried about some wrinkles in her face and invited Welldone to get his legendary medicine. The Comte first refused and tried to change her mind. But when the lady insisted, at least he handed her a little bottle with a few teaspoons of liquid. He told her to hide the bottle and to take two drops of the liquid at the time of full- and new moon. Happily the lady hid the bottle among her cosmetics.

When the duchess was absent, her maid (at the age of 45) got pain in her stomach. The maid thought that some alcohol may help and searched in the bedroom of her mistress for liqueur. She found the gift of Comte Welldone, took it for the wanted medicine and emptied the bottle completely.

When the duchess returned and ordered her maid, she did not recognize her: the one, who appeared, was a girl of hardly sixteen – but the woman was not aware of her changed form.

The newspaper did not tell how the ladies felt and managed their lives after this event. Comte Welldone, better known as “Saint Germain”, would have told them the method to keep youth and health for body and soul, but they fixed themselves upon the liquor.

The stories of this series are taken from the oldest poem of mankind, the venerable Ramayana. Master K.P. Kumar told many of them in his books and lectures. They are inspiring to those, who can extract the information contained for presence and future.

Picture of the Month of Taurus :

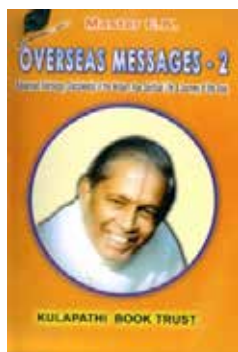

Taurus - The Higher Bridge and The Awakening of the Third Eye

The passage of the disciple from Gemini to Taurus marks the construction of the secondary bridge (manas-buddhi) from the ending of the purpose of the vocal cords in voice and the ending of the purpose of voice in Prana. The starting point of the bridge is yellow (golden) and its culmination is in blue. When the disciple loses his eyes and attempts to see inwardly through the third eye by uttering forth the sacred word, he gets to a point where his vocal sound merges in the sound of his Prana (breath). Then his Prana merges in his mind. This leads him to the buddhic plane. All this path, when successful, gives the experience of a splendorous golden-yellow light. When this fades away into the deep-blue of the sky, it is a sign of the disciple having completed the construction of this bridge. This is also the stimulation for the birth of the third eye

Book review

Overseas Messages - 2

The 2nd volume of “Overseas Messages” by Master EK. contains a collection of seminar transcriptions from lectures given in Europe in the early 80ies: Advanced Astrology, Discipleship in the Modern Age, Spiritual Life, Journey of the Soul (The Evolution of Consciousness).

Extract: “Real discipleship takes place in silence, not vocal silence, but mental silence. It takes place as an attitude in life. The guru teaches in silence and the disciple learns in silence. Silence towards everything is needed, so that the word of the guru is transmitted in form of an attitude of life. It is thrown like a seed into our life through holes of our mind.”

Nutrients for Discipleship

Discipleship is not just doing some practices of meditation, study of books and dabbling into fields of service. It has a larger connotation. A disciple is one who gains multiple abilities and offers such abilities to benefit the society in multiple ways. In the book “Nutrients for Discipleship” Dr. K. Parvathi Kumar explains that discipleship is to dedicate the mind, the senses and the body to divine purposes through acts of general welfare in preference to acts of personal welfare. He says that the spiritual practices are of value only if such practices contribute to the economic, cultural, and social welfare of humanity. The book gives 101 paragraphs with nutrients for discipleship.

Great Invocation

Let us form
the circle of good will.
OMNIA VINCIT AMOS.
From the South
through love,
which is pure,
from the West
through wisdom,
which is true,
from the East
through will,
which is noble,
from the North
through silence,
which is golden.
May the light make beautiful our lives.
Oh! Hierophant of our rite,
let his love shine.
OMNIA VINCIT AMOS.
Let us form the Circle of the World Servers.

We bow down
in homage and adoration to the glorious and mighty hierarchy,
the inner government
of the world,
and to its exquisite jewel,
the star of the sea
– the World Mother.

From the point of light
within the mind of God,
let light stream forth
into the minds of men.
Let light descend on earth.

From the point of love
within the heart of God,
let love stream forth
into the hearts of men.
May the Lord return
to earth.

From the centre
where the will of God
is known,
let purpose guide
the little wills of men,
the purpose
which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre
which we call
the race of men,
let the plan of love and
light work out,
and may it seal the door
where evil dwells.

From the Avatâr
of Synthesis
who is around,
let his energy pour down
in all kingdoms.
May he lift up the earth
to the kings of beauty.

The sons of men are one,
and I am one with them.
I seek to love, not hate.
I seek to serve,
and not exact due service.
I seek to heal, not hurt.

Let pain bring due reward of light
and love.
Let the soul control
the outer form and life
and all events,
and bring to light
the love that underlies
the happenings of the time.

Let vision come and insight.
Let the future stand revealed.
Let inner union demonstrate and outer cleavages be gone.

Let love prevail.
Let all men love.

Master DK

OH LORD AGNI!
WE PRAY THAT WE MAY BE LEAD
THROUGH THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS (OF LIGHT),
FOR YOU KNOW THE LIGHTED PATHS OF THE UNIVERSE.
LEAD US, GUIDE US AND ENSURE THAT ALL OUR KARMA IS BURNT ON THE WAY
AND THAT WE TEND TO BE THE LIGHTED BEINGS
IN THE ETERNAL KINGDOM OF LIGHT TO SERVE IN JOY!
